THEY'RE ALL DRY WAY DOWN ON THE FARM, BY CRACKY

(Special To The News)
ROSTON, May 1. — See in Washington dispatches that the Democrats are planning to take the wet side and make a direct issue of prohibition in 32.

Why a man should dig his grave three years before he is buried is almost unexplainable. I spent three years in 48 states each season kidding and joking on both sides of prohibition. If you think this country is not a big city on a hill composed of country folks. It's the only one we ever had where the small town and country know they hold the trump card.
You can't change it without their permission, and you won't get it. They are just laughing at you.

Yours,
WILL.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Young Pa Newc gets hold of one which appealed to his visibilities to no small degree. A young seventh ward lad is being taught by the same school mistress who taught his grandmother when she was the same age as the boy is now.

The Westfield district is alive with activity—or rather, was. There were in the neighborhood of 300 persons there for the past two days at the assembly, composed entirely of women from Mercer and Lawrence counties.

A new style—saw a lad walking down street wearing a blue skirt and his apparent pride was a white vest, which he was wearing.

Strawberries of the early variety have a very fine taste this spring, according to samplers of the garden patch variety. Generally they are tasteful.

Pa Newc understands that another immense girder for the North street bridge site is on the way from Neville Island, near Pittsburgh. It was said that it should reach the city either yesterday or probably not until today. The girder weighs 40 tons, is 80 feet long and cost $4,000. The beam is being transported by rail.

Members of the senior high school track team are rapidly getting into shape for their invasion of Pittsburgh next Saturday. They are scheduled to compete in Carnegie Tech's annual track and field meet.

The Pennsylvania railroad intends to beautify the driveway leading to its West side depot. The drive itself will be covered with asphalt and a flower garden developed in the middle of the drive. Work has commenced and will probably be finished shortly.

The common ordinary paint brush has added an attractive touch to the three or four traffic regulators about the downtown section. The lights were painted an aluminum color by city workmen yesterday.

From now on will be a busy period in the lives of the school people—teachers and pupils. There are all kinds of operettas, plays, exercises, commencements and functions of various sorts which, added to the final exams, make the senior students' last month one that is hectic.

Farmers are getting worried about planting time this year again. For the past couple of years there has been considerable trouble in the spring

When I Was 21

Dr. F. F. Urey taught school during the winter at the old Kerr town school in Mercer and at ended Ship-pley Rock Normal school during the summer in his 21st year.

He later graduated from medical school in Pittsburgh and in 1907 started to practice his profession in this city. During the World War he enlisted in the medical corps.
Dr. Urey is married and resides on

Welcome Home! Anne! Reporters' Greeting: Lindy Is Not Present

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 2.—The Morrow, Anne and Elizabeth. Mrs.
Dwight Morrow, Mrs. Stanley Yates, her sister, Mrs. Charles Long Cutler, grandmother to the Morrow girls, all arrived in town today and found a lot of reporters and photographers waiting for them.

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was nowhere in sight although it had been expected that he would be on hand to greet his fiancée, Anne.

The party arrived in Ambassador Morrow's private car on the Ohio State limited, which made an unscheduled stop at One Hundred and Twenty-Fifth street, where baggage was taken off.

Anne smiled but said no, a word about her impending marriage to the colonel. She wore a light tan her-mion suit and a blue hat and carried a Scotch terrier in her arms.
Her sister, too, carried a dog.

B. & O. Will Expend $150,000 To Improve Shops At N. C. Junction

Plans for improvements costing approximately $150,000.00 have been approved for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at New Castle Junction, according to a statement made by Harry Reese, General Master Mechanic of the Akron Division. The improvements will consist of a new underpass, extensions for seven stalls in the roundhouse, and a new track layout to handle increased business.

This improvement marks another large expenditure by the Baltimore & Ohio in New Castle in the past four years. Each year has seen some improvement made, and each one has cost upwards of $150,000.00 to $200,- 000.00. The reason for the improvements has been increased business and more engines shipped at New Castle Junction.

One Business To Be Heavy Arrangements are being made by the road to handle 50 per cent more cars from the lakes this season than has been handled in any year before.

The total tonnage expected to pass over the division this year is something over 3,000,000 tons. This means more equipment, more and larger facilities for handling.

The new under pass will be a large affair, replacing the present one which has become antiquated. The extension of the seven stalls in the roundhouse is by reason of the large type of engine now used. The new tracks will be for the handling of more cars at the junction.

With Mr. Reese Wednesday afternoon were C. W. Galloway, Superintendent of Motive Power for the Western Lines, whose headquarters are in Cincinnati, O., and W. D. Johnson, assistant superintendent of Motive Power. They were here on an inspection tour of the motive power equipment and facilities at New Castle Junction.

Freight Car Hits Automobile; Three Persons Are Hurt Injuries Fatal

Freight Car At Bessemer Runs Away And Collides With Car; Minor Injuries Occur

Three persons suffered minor injuries Wednesday evening at Bessemer when a freight car of the Bessemer Cement company became loose from its moorings and glided down the tracks which cross the highway, and crashed into the automobile of James Postich of Koppel.
Postich, his wife and Mrs. Clinko Vlah of Bessemer, suffered bruises and minor cuts and the sedan type car was badly damaged.

The accident occurred about nine o'clock on the track crossing as one approaches Bessemer borough from the east. Postich, not suspecting the track to be in use when no watchman was to be seen, apparently drove across the tracks without halting or looking for the approach of cars.

The cement company car had reached a high rate of speed, it is supposed, in its run down the tracks, and Postich saw its approach too late to avoid the collision.

Just what caused the car to break loose from its moorings is not known, as it had been securely braked on the track. When the crash came, it was not denied, but Mrs. Clinko drove the car some distance down the tracks for some distance where it was arrested in its course by a grade.

Young Husband Held For

(International News Service)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 2.—The cynical, ever-present
"cherchez la femme" assumed the major role in New York's torch murder mystery today.

With Earl Francis Peacock held to the grand jury on a murder charge for the slaying and subsequent cremation of Dorothy Peacock, his pretty bride of a year, authorities today ventered their efforts on establishing the identity of the woman alleged to have been Peacock's companion when he purchased two bottles of kerosene with which to reduce the evidence of his ghastly crime to ashes.

Woman Is Held
District Attorney Frank Coyle, indicating his belief that Miss Frances Newman, Peacock's "girl friend," was not the mystery woman, said he in-

To E. V. Corban

Local Man Passes Away In Spencer Hospital At Meadville At Noon
Today

Injuries received Tuesday night in an automobile accident near Meadville, proved fatal to Edwin V. Corban, aged 22, of the Harbor, who passed away at noon today.

Mr. Corban, who was in charge of the used car department of the Greenville Motor Co., Chrysler dealers, had been on his way to Cochran-ton on business, when the fatal accident occurred. A companion, who is believed to have been Rex Gardner of Erie, was killed outright and Mr.
Corban sustained a badly crushed chest and other injuries.

He was removed to the Spencer hospital in Meadville where he in-gured until noon today.

Mr. Corban had been a life-long resident of New Castle. He is survived by his widow, Anna Burlett Corban and two children, Edwin, Jr., and Eloise; his mother, Mrs. E. J.
Switzer and a sister, Mrs. Bert James,
all of New Castle.
The body will be brought to his late home here this afternoon. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Refactories Plant Business Expanding Moving Offices Here

Organized in 1920, the New Castle Refractories company, located between the Shenango plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company and the New Castle company, and its personnel of employees was small. Today its expanding business has necessitated its use of all the buildings of the former stamping works, a large four-story
brick building, two large one-story buildings and power plant and to construct and put in use two large kilns
in the open.

When organized, it occupied but a small part of the numerous buildings of the former New Castle Stamping company, and its personnel of employees was small. Today its expanding business has necessitated its use
of all the buildings of the former stamping works, a large four-story
brick building, two large one-story

in the open.

Field Is Increasing.
Organized originally to manufacture clay products required in the construction and operation of the Dressler Tunnel Kilns, which are erected in this country by the Dressler Tunnel Kiln company of Cleveland, O., the uses of the products of the local plant have been so highly developed that there is an ever increasing field of uses that has necessitated the expansion of the company and its plant here.

The personnel of the plant alone is now between 75 and 100 men, practically all of whom are steadily employed under the stress of increasing demands for the products of the company.

More Offices Here.
In keeping with the expanding business and to better care for the business of the company, the offices in this city and Cleveland, O., have been concentrated here, spacious offices for the president and other officers together with the clerical personnel having been provided on the first floor of the main building in the past few weeks.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the company held Monday in the local offices and which was attended by every one of the members of the board, Roger W. Rowland of Pittsburgh, a widely known business man of that city, was elected to suc-

Stories Of College Life And Jazz Age Are Over Exaggerated, Hutchins Claims

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 2.— American college boys have their problems but the effect of the so-called Jazz Age on students is not one of them.

"Nothing to get excited about," says the attitude of Robert Maynard Hutchins, "boy dean" of the Yale Law School who, at the age of thirty, has been appointed president of the University of Chicago, the sixth largest university in the United States.
When he takes charge in Chicago he will be the youngest college president in the country.

"I think the standards and ideals of the rank and file of college boys and girls are as high as they ever have been," Dean Hutchins declared in an exclusive interview today.

Nothing To Worry About
"The young people are all right.
I'm not at all alarmed over the effect of this so-called Jazz Age on students. We can bank on our young folk."

The tall, slim, handsome, dark-haired young college president-elect smilingly "laughed off" suggestions that perhaps the present day crop of college students were going at too fast a pace.

"Not at all," he said.
"A Chicago girl student testified at a recent homicide trial that to be popular with the boys nowadays girls must drink, dance and keep late hours," he was reminded. "How about that?"

"Well," he replied, "I confess I may not be right up on the times. I am ten years older than that lady.
But her idea is untrue as far as my experience has indicated. I think the average co-ed is a pretty level-headed person."

"How about the two university men who were tried in Atlanta recently in what was described as 'murder about that?"

Secretary

Resignation as general secretary of the New Castle Young Women's

Miss Ritchie has been at the head of affairs at the Young Women's aspast two and a half years, prior to that time having been engaged in various work in this city.

In announcing her resignation,
Miss Ritchie did not present her fuber of propositions.

In her capacity as general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Ritchie was widely known about the city, and made many friends through her ef-it is with regret that it is learned she is leaving.

Dr. J. S. Stewart, of 709 North Mer-has been located for the past 7 1/2 years in Rawalpindi, Punjab, India, as the manager of a high school and superintendent of a leper's colony.

Prof. Stewart originally went out into the mission fields after his gradu-

Presbyterian church. From Cyprus he went to the Teacher's College in Rawalpindi, Punjab, India, and upon his return to the United States at-Cyprus and was again transferred to India. His third trip over was under the auspices of the United Presbyyears has been stationed at Rawalpindi.

Has 350 Boys In School.
His school in Rawalpindi has 350 boys attending, and among them are Hindus, Mohammedans, Sikhs and Christians. The teachers are drawn from these castes also. Ten of the school and Prof. Stewart says that

Governor Signs Motor Code And Gas Tax Measure

Governor Fisher Places Signature On Two Important Highway Bills Wednesday

NEW MEASURES TO NOW BECOME LAWS

HARRISBURG, May 2. The administration highway program, the motor vehicle code and the four-cent gasoline tax measure today were being signed by Governor John S. Fisher.

The highway program consists of a series of bills appropriating $22,500,000 for new construction, providing for the taking over of old bridges on state routes on June 1, 1930, maintenance by the state of township roads made in cooperation with township, appropriating $2,000,000 for state and local aid in construction of township roads on a basis, appropriating $6,000,000 for maintenance of township roads under the new system, appropriating $500,000 for maintenance of township roads, a $750,000 for improvement of streets of state highways in Philadelphia, and an appropriation of $2,000,000 for improvement of streets on state highways in Pittsburgh, Scranton, Harrisburg and all third class cities.

The motor vehicle code provides for an increase in fines and license fees from 25 to 125 per cent, operators' licenses from $1 to $2, learners' permits from $2.50 to $3, and will provide an estimated increase in revenues of $4,500,000 yearly. The code also increases the speed limit from 35 to 40 miles an hour.

Under terms of the four-cent gasoline tax bill, sponsored by Representative Storing of Philadelphia, the three-cent tax is made permanent while the extra cent tax will be in effect for one year, beginning July 1, this year. It is estimated that additional revenue available for highway purposes under this bill will be approximately $6,000,000 for the biennium.

in planting crops due to the unknown of Old Sol.

Pa New believes that the alley, alley, should be used for the business establishments bordering them, but some of these companies take advantage of a good thing. We have seen some of them completely blocked and with little apparent move made to remedy the situation. After all, aren't they a sort of public thoroughfare.

And so we have started on the month of May with little ceremony. Twenty-nine more days and the famous marriage month will be upon us. May, by the way, comes from an honorable and highly respectable Latin word "Majus" and what it means doesn't matter.

Notices have been posted about Edenburg announcing a detour on the route from Edenburg to Hillsville as a result of start of work of paving the road from the Pennsylvania railroad crossing towards Hillsville.

Paint brushes are certainly working hard in New Castle at the present time. Many homes are being brightened up with a coat or two of fresh paint. All of which has the unanimous approval of Pa New. Keep up the good work.

New Castle will be visited on May 24, the last day of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce trip this year, according to announcement of the itinerary. The stop here is made on the return from Erie to Pittsburgh.

New President.
Mr. Rowland is a comparatively young man, having been born in Springfield, Mass., February 4, 1895. He graduated from Pennsylvania State college in the class of 1917.

He then entered the air service of the United States and served with distinction during the World war as a flyer in the First Pursuit group of the A. E. F. in France.

Since returning to civilian life, he has served as vice president and general manager of the Duquesne Burner company and the Gas Combustion company of Pittsburgh and it is with this broad experience that he assumes his duties as president and director of the New Castle Refractories company.

He is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Engineers' Society of Western Pennsylvania, also of the American Gas association. He is also affiliated with the Presbyterian church.

He has completed the purchase of the fine residence of J. Cam Liebenow on Highland avenue at Euclid avenue which he, his wife and two children will occupy in the next few weeks.

Officers of Company.

The officers of the company are: John P. Casey, Pittsburgh, chairman of the board; Roger W. Rowland, president and general manager; George D. Morris, New Castle, vice president; and Philip Dressler of Cleveland, O., vice president, who with the following men make up the personnel of the board of directors: John A. Calkley, Cleveland; Paul A. Mooney, Cleveland; E. Porter, Pittsburgh; C. E. Lott, Pittsburgh; and Samuel B. Casey, Pittsburgh. R. E. Whitaker, New Castle, is secretary-treasurer of the concern.

At this meeting, authorization was given, according to R. E. Whitaker, secretary-treasurer, for improvement of the equipment of the plant. The improvements include a new hydraulic press, which will enable the concern to go into new and profitable production lines in keeping with the business of the concern. There will also be a new overhead tramway system for the carrying of forms, finished and unfinished products, materials, etc., on the upper floors of the main building without the use of so much manual labor as at present.

Organized to manufacture the refractories or fire clay products used in the construction of tunnel kilns, the local plant has furnished the material for the construction of approximately 100 such kilns in all parts of the United States. The first of these was one construction at the local plant of the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing company.

At the start, the plant manufactured special forms of refractories made more or less by hand. The plant has specialized in special products which cost more than common fire clay products.

It has the exclusive right to manufacture parts for the Dressler kilns, many of its special shapes are protected by patent rights and its formulas are secret, all of which tend to make it a very desirable manufacturing enterprise.

There has been developed by the plant a new method of making special shapes by casting in which plaster paris patterns or forms are used, which has enabled the concern to meet the increasing severe requirements of those using their products.

Use Six Mixes.
The clay used in the manufacture of the refractories are from many places, including New Jersey, North Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri and Florida. In some processes, carborundum is used to add strength.

There are six different mixes used in the casting process. These are for the most part made on the fourth floor of the main building. The mixes are known as slip is taken by gravity to lower floors to be cast in forms from two ounces in weight to 1350 pounds. The plaster paris casting molds absorb the water from the slip and the slip acquires the desired solid form. It takes from ten days to several weeks, according to the size, for the shapes or forms to dry out, period of their being made in kilns of the plant to as high as 3000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Over 900 different shapes are made in the plant, ranging from less than a pound to 1350 pounds in weight.

The clay in preparation for use is pressed into irregular shaped bricks, which are then burned, then placed in a dry pan and screened. In the preparation of combustion chambers for the tunnel kilns, it is then placed in a wet pan, then in a large press, where the desired form is made, then fired.

Ten Kilns in Use.

Ten large kilns are now in use, the two largest of which were constructed to the rear of the main building last fall to meet the demands for the product. The intense heat at which these are fired makes it necessary for those in charge to know when a certain article has reached the proper heat, this being done by the "cone system," there being cones of a material which melts at certain temperatures placed in the kilns, where they can be watched and each cone as it melts representing approximately 25 degrees more heat.

Among the articles manufactured are combustion chambers and all parts used in the construction of Dressler tunnel kilns, ladle liners, for use in foundries, parts used in loading cars used in the tunnel kilns, parts for use in electric furnaces and in fact for all types of manufacturing where heat resisting clay products are required.

The plant has a power plant of two 200-horse power units, only one of which is in use all the time, the other always being in reserve. The steam produced is used almost entirely for heating purposes and processes of manufacture. The operation of the plant is almost entirely by electricity. There is a well equipped machine and carpenter shop, which enables the plant to do most of its machine work, also crating of articles for shipment.

Heavier pieces manufactured are handled by overhead tramway systems which carry them from press to kiln, etc.

There is practically no loss of material, either before or after being fired, as it is always returned to a form that can be used over.

for a thrill," he was asked. "And also that Leopold Loeb case in Chicago some time back."

"That doesn't reflect on college life or university training in the slightest," Dean Hutchins answered. "It may show some significance as to the state of modern society. I think the so-called 'thrill murder' was made up because it was unusual. You rarely find college men doing anything like that. Anybody else could have killed for a thrill. A reporter, a bank clerk or a laborer."

College suicides was then brought up. This reporter asked the youthful-looking dean, if over-study, fear of examinations or any other factor was responsible for the wave of student suicides some time back.

Talks Of Suicides

"I am not a psychiatrist, but I will say that no feature of college life tends to cause suicides," Dean Hutchins replied. "Suicides are not, of course, confined to college. In fact, there is the same increase in the number of suicides among shop girls, bankers, clerks and people in all walks of life. The high pressure that many people live under has something to do with it."

There has been an important development in mental hygiene dealing with this problem. Yale now has four or five psychiatrists who are attached to the department of university health. Men are referred to them by teachers, deans or by the university physician they go of their own accord. This has been going on for three years and we believe it has brought results. Formerly it was impossible to deal with any student who might have serious trouble without sending him out of town."

Asked how he stood on college boys owning their own cars, he said: "I'm not excited about that," asked if he thought colleges should be more strict with students, he declared:

"No. The tendency is to get away from forcing students to educate themselves against their will. What students need is more educational opportunities and less compulsion."

STAR LORE

GREATEST METEOR CRASH OF MODERN TIMES
By Arthur D. Carpenter.

Startling accounts during the past two years have been gradually trickling through to the reading world, of a gigantic meteor crash that happened in a most remote, inaccessible part of central Siberia in 1908. It comes to light a meteor, or meteors, estimated at 40,000 tons, exploded and crashed to earth, leaving a great hole in the earth, while the awful force of the air driven before the meteors laid the trees flat for 10 or 15 miles around, and from the great heat generated, scorched and charred the entire locality, as well. Five hundred miles away the earth shook; it was supposed to be an earthquake.

Deaths of the Day

Funeral Services.

Funeral services for Carl B. Younkings took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home in Plaingrove township with Rev. Van Cleve, his pastor in charge, assisted by Rev. Elder a former pastor of the North Liberty Presbyterian church.

The services were very largely attended by friends of the young man. Many beautiful flowers banked the casket, expressing sympathy and esteem. Selections were sung by the choir of the North Liberty church.

The pallbearers were boy friends of the deceased. They were Gaylord Eppinger, Guy Eppinger, Paul Minor, Delbert Parquett, Roy Powell and Herman Dight. Interment was made in the Grove City cemetery.

Time of Funeral.

Funeral services for the late Elsworth T. Jarvis of West Washington street whose death occurred in Chicago, Ill., will be conducted Friday, May 3, at 9 a. m., from St. Margaret's church in Mahoningtown. Burial will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Edwin Thomas Powell.

Edwin Thomas Powell aged 87 years died at his home on Irvine avenue, Sharon, Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Powell was a former well known resident of New Castle going to Sharon about 14 years ago from this city. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose.

Besides his widow, Myra Powell he leaves one son, William Roberts of Breckenridge, Pa., and one daughter Mrs. Thomas Hill of Youngstown. He also leaves two brothers, John Powell of Elwood City and George Powell of New Castle.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. James M. Krug.
Mrs. Eliza McKee Krug, aged 20 years, wife of James M. Krug, passed away at the residence, 3277 Winter avenue, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock following a brief illness.

Mrs. Krug's death was the result of pneumonia which she contracted about a week ago.

She was born at Connelville, Pa., October 13, 1908, a daughter of Joel S. McKee now of New Castle and cashier of the First National Bank of Lawrence County, and Daisy C. McKee. She came to this city to reside September 1, 1928. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city and the Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Krug's death is particularly sad as she had been married just a year ago. She is survived by her husband and parents.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday, May 4, from the home at 2 p. m., D. S. T. with Rev. Walter Emerson McClure of the First Presbyterian church in charge.

Nunzie Carl Staph.

Nunzie Carl Staph aged 22 years son of Mr. and Mrs. Gennaro Staph of Shenango township, D. S. T. died at the New Castle hospital this morning at 2 o'clock as the result of complications which developed from an operation.

The young man was one of the well known and popular young men of the community where he lived and was well liked by his associates.

Besides his parents he leaves two brothers John and Guy and three sisters. Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 4 at 10 a. m. from St. Vitus church of which he was a member. Burial in church cemetery.

Mr. Staph was in charge of the acetylene burners of the Pennsylvania railroad previous to his illness.

Mrs. Ada McClure.
Mrs. Ada McClure aged 88 years widow of Samuel S. McClure, died at her home in Darlington Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. McClure had been a resident of Darlington for many years and was widely known. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Ada Paterson of Patrick's Spray, Va.

Funeral services will be held Friday, May 3 at 2 p. m., E. S. T. from her home. Interment in R. P. cemetery.

Coyne further revealed that information had come to him that when Peacock, the picture of easy insouciance, stood in Mt. Vernon police court and paid a $3 traffic violation fine a few hours after he ignited his wife's funeral pyre, he was accompanied by a woman.

Miss Newman denied any knowledge of the traffic court episode, Coyne said, and likewise denied any knowledge of the murder or burning of Mrs. Peacock.

College Boy Arrives

Eugene Bussey, sophomore of Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, and a member of Theta Pi fraternity, arrived in New York today, armed with 20 letters which, he claims, were written to him by Mrs. Peacock.

Bussey is said to have declared himself "morally guilty" and asserted his intention of doing everything possible to help Peacock, his erstwhile radio comrade.

"It's an awful tragedy," Bussey said, "and I'm willing to do all I can to aid Earl."

Bussey faced possible questioning by the district attorney today.

ent structure, in order to straighten the road, which winds down the hill from the north.

As to the Willow Grove bridge, it will not be necessary to bring it before the Public Service commission. It will come before the War department, the commission being rated as a navigable stream at the point where it is spanned by the bridge. As it will only be necessary to get the approval of the War department, the commission believe that the preliminary can be accomplished much quicker then in the case of the Edenburg bridge.

The Willow Grove bridge is a steel structure, but it is much too narrow and too high to accommodate the present heavy traffic. There is a dangerous curve at the west end of the bridge which will be eliminated. The bridge, when built will likely be south of the present structure, in order that the road may be straightened.

It is probable that some arrangement will be made under which both bridges, which will be built by the state, can be started soon. At least the surveys can be made and the plans prepared.

As both new bridges will be placed at different locations it will be possible to use the old bridges until the new ones are completed.

National Balloonists Open 1929 Festivities In Pittsburgh Today

Pitt Stadium Is Scene Of Gigantic Air Circus;
Three-Day Meeting

Balloonists Will Start Saturday In Quest Of Title; Dozen Bags Are Entered

By ARTHUR B. DONEGAN,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—The opening day's program of the 1929 national elimination balloon races today drew scores of the nation's best known aviation experts and balloonists to Pitt stadium, where ground exhibits, aerial demonstrations and an aerial circus were with much other an opening attractions.

Despite threatening weather, thousands were expected at the huge bowl to witness the preliminaries to the elimination balloon races on Saturday.

Workmen were busy putting the last touches on the bowl in preparation for Saturday's start.

Details Arranged

Finishing touches on the ground exhibits, installation of lights and last minute attention to the "blimps" which will take off Saturday were being made.

Three of the Goodyear "baby blimps" were scheduled to land here by noon, just before the opening program set under way.

Amelia Barnhart, woman trans-Atlantic flier, was also expected to arrive today.

Aerial demonstrations, ground exhibits and hand concerts were to fill in most of the first day, which will culminate in a night air show and an address by Commander Charles A. Rosendahl, skipper of the United States Naval dirigible Los Angeles.

Maj. Gen. James E. Fehet, chief of the army air corps, was among the notables on hand for the start of the races. Gen. Fehet flew to Pittsburgh from Washington last night. With him, Lieut. Elwood Quassada, who piloted the Army Plane "Question Mark" when it broke the world's endurance flight record recently, is to assist in getting the balloonists off tomorrow.

New Safety Ruling

The dozen entries in the race will take off with less ballast than usual, Lieut. Charles E. Fehet, operations officer, decided today, to insure safety of both pilots and spectators.

After a careful study of Pitt stadium, Lieut. Fehet made the ruling that each pilot ascend with less ballast to insure them attaining sufficient altitude to clear the rim of the bowl and nearby buildings.

Pilots at first objected to dropping more than the usual amount of ballast at the start but the safety factor was finally agreed to be more important than the chance of breaking distance or endurance records.

Positions Drawn

Drawings for take-off were made at a banquet given pilots and their aids last night. Results were:

First, Detroit Balloon club, W. A. Kikoff, pilot, and Thorvald Larsen, aide.

Second, Army Number Three, Lieut. L. A. Lawson, pilot, Lieut. Edgar Pogoninger, aide.

Third, Army Number Two, Capt. E. W. Hill, pilot, Lieut. Robert Heald, aide.

Fourth, Army Number One, Capt. W. J. Flood, pilot, Lieut. U. G. Ent, aide.

Fifth, The Pittsburgher, Dr. George M. Legalee, pilot, Walter Chambers, aide.

Sixth, Detroit Balloon club, E. J. Hill, pilot, Arthur G. Schlosser, aide.

Seventh, St. Louis, Capt. H. E. Hon-eywell, pilot, Roland J. Gauspel, aide.

Eighth, Detroit Balloon club, S. A. J. Rasmussen, pilot, Tracy South, worth, aide.

Ninth, American Business club of Akron, C. A. Palmer, pilot, Walter B. Griffin, aide.

Tenth, Navy Number Two, Lieut. Jack C. Richardson, pilot, Lieut. Maurice M. Bradley, aide.

Eleventh, Goodyear VII, Ward T. Vancorn, pilot, Alan L. McCracken, aide.

Twelfth, Navy Number One, Lieut. Thomas G. W. Settle, pilot, ensign Wilfred Bushnell, aide.

The balloons will take off in the order of drawing, with short intervals between the starts. Lessening of the ballast carried by each bag is expected to make the start speedier and officials in charge of the race believe that if the weather is at all favorable Saturday, all twelve of the entries will take the air shortly after noon.

cause she refuses to redeem the czar's and Kerensky's bonds, bought by foolish American bankers.

Nations and secretaries change their minds, however.

Britain's five important weekly reviews demand friendly business relations with Russia.

The Saturday Review, as conservative and anti-Soviet as the Wall Street Journal, says, "If we are to capture what must potentially be the biggest market still undeveloped in the world, we must at any rate, begin by renewing diplomatic intercourse with Russia."

Some of our financial gentlemen will decide that part of the world's "biggest undeveloped business" should come here. When they make up their minds, it will come.

The Mexican revolution, its back broken, has degenerated into guerrilla warfare, intermittent sniping, here and there, attacks on passenger trains, etc.

The revolutionary cry, "Long Live Christ, the King," will be heard no more in pitched battles, unless the revolution's forces can be reorganized. Many of the ablest rebel generals have fled from Mexico to safety, over the United States border.

The rebels fought with desperate courage. But men on foot, relying on escape from greater numbers by flight to the hills, cannot endure airplane attacks. Mexico's government has the airplanes and has used them with deadly results.

This country realizes only dimly what sort of war it was.

France knows. On the records are 300,000 French soldiers, every one of them wounded more than five times.

French pensioners to whom their country pays $100,000,000 a year, include 2,000 totally blind and 2,000 without arms or legs.

Do you wonder that France has built the world's greatest fighting air fleet, and refuses to discuss peace without adequate defense?

Some 400 Books Borrowed On Opening Day At New East Side Branch Library

Four hundred books were borrowed from the new east side branch of the New Castle public library on its opening day Wednesday afternoon and evening. The new branch, located in the old Third U. P. church basement, entertained approximately the same number of visitors during the day also.

The new library will be open again Saturday from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m., and it is expected that over 1,000 of the 1,500 books which are housed in the new branch will have been taken out again closing time on Saturday evening.

Senate Committee Investigates Connection With Aluminum Company

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A searching investigation into the participation of Andrew W. Mellon in the merger of the Aluminum Company of America with the Canadian Development company four years ago probably will be undertaken by the senate judiciary committee before rendering a verdict on his eligibility to serve as secretary of the treasury, it was learned today.

The committee already has possession of a deposition, made by Mellon last July in a lawsuit growing out of the merger, which has thrown a new light on his connection with the Aluminum company. In his deposition, Mellon admitted he was a "factor" in the affairs of the company and that he was consulted on questions regarding the "policy" of the company. It showed he participated in the negotiations, resulting in the merger, and that the final new bridge which spans Rural avenue, the improvement was ordered as a preservation move. Approximately a week will be required by the contractor to fulfill the contract.

Woman Is Robbed Of Life Savings

Mrs. Susie Sheddlock, 47, Of Daisytown, Pa., Is Robbed Of $10,740 By Three Thugs

WOMAN IS BEATEN ALMOST UNCONSCIOUS

(International News Service) BROWNSVILLE, Pa., May 2.—Police of Brownsville and surrounding towns today were searching for three bandits who bound, gagged and beat Mrs. Susie Sheddlock, 47, and robbed her of $10,740, her life savings.

After the daring robbery the bandits sped away in an auto in the direction of Centerville, Pa. It took 15 minutes for Mrs. Sheddlock to free herself and spread the alarm. By that time the desperadoes had made good their escape and pursuit was futile.

The robbery occurred yesterday in the woman's home at Daisytown, four miles from here. Two of the bandits entered the house, while the third remained at the wheel of the waiting auto.

Mrs. Sheddlock at first refused to reveal the hiding place of the money, but was beaten until she told where the savings were secreted. The robbers seized the cash, fled from the house and sped away in the car.

Farewell Tendered Departing Pastor

Rev. Whilding And Family Are Accorded Pleasant Farewell

The Sunday school room of the First Congregational church was crowded to capacity Wednesday evening when a farewell reception was tendered Rev. Samuel Whilding and family, who leave today for their new field of endeavor in Southern Ohio.

Rev. Whilding in leaving here goes to take charge of a church at Oak Hill, Southern Ohio, after having been in charge of the First Congregational church of this city for over three years during which he proved himself to be one of the most capable preachers that ever occupied the pulpit.

During the period that he has been in this city, he has filled the pulpit of many other churches here and has made a deep impression as a pupil, orator and a learned Bible authority.

Mr. and Mrs. Whilding are leaving behind them a host of friends, it was demonstrated last night who wish them the greatest success in their new home.

The chairman of the reception held last night was W. J. Davis and Rev. J. L. Pettie led in prayer, after which Cliff Jones and E. M. Davis led the singing of several congregational numbers. Among them making addresses were Rev. F. M. Childs of the Emmanuel Baptist church, Rev. J. B. Porter of the Central Christian church, Rev. J. L. Pettie of the Grace M. E. church, John Harvard, W. P. Williams, superintendent of the Sunday school, Councilman D. O. Davies of the Men's Bible class, James Taylor, Deacon and David Evans, oldest deacon in the service. All expressed their regret at the departure of Rev. Whilding. Emory Davis and Miss Florrie Davies rendered a pleading duet. The congregational singing was in keeping with the reputation of the church.

David Evans, the oldest deacon, on behalf of the entire congregation presented Rev. Whilding with a purse of money as a token of the esteem of the members of the church. Rev. Whilding thanked all for the support he had while here and the many kindnesses shown him and his family. After the meeting a lunch was served by the ladies of the church.

Safety Commission Halt Work On Signs

Traffic Bodies Will Not Further Sign Placement Until New State Code Appears

Work of the New Castle traffic commission with regards to the placement of signs has been halted, according to the decision reached at the meeting which took place in the office of Mayor W. H. Gillespie in the city building Wednesday evening, stated James B. Foster, general chairman.

It was the belief of the members of the commission that no further work should be done until the new state motor code of rules is published and distributed on account of the fact that there might be conflicting ordinances with the state decrees.

No meetings of the commission will take place unless called for specific purposes until the new code is published.

"My! you look lovely to-night"

SHE knew the compliment to be true—for the last pimple had vanished.

If you are one of the embarrassed—and men are not exceptions—with skin blemishes that linger, and sometimes leave scars, you must realize that the logical cause may come from the blood.

A clear, smooth, velvety skin bespeaks loveliness. Men admire it. Women praise and secretly envy. Hope, joy, happiness, and even love, may depend on the possession of a clear, unblemished skin.

On the other hand—skin eruptions are outward evidences of the condition within. Authorities state it is an indication that the body's power of resistance to disease and infection is low. Meaning, that there is a deficiency of red-blood-cells.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there could be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

When you get your red-blood-cells back to normal, that sluggish let-down feeling, loss of appetite, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again and you sleep soundly; firm flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. Your nerves become steady. You are resistant to diseases.

Expect Minstrel Show And Revue To Be Huge Success

Civic Entertainers Receiving Help From Numerous Sources For Show

According to members of the committee in charge, the big minstrel show and revue, to be staged by the Civic Entertainers of the city, will be a huge success.

Fine progress is being made with both the minstrel act and the olio, which will contain some of the finest talent in the city. The project has been given the endorsement of several local civic clubs, the Lions Club having called off similar plans in order not to conflict with the present entertainment. The project has also been given the support of the New Castle Booster Club.

Efforts are being made to have the coming production, the best of its kind ever produced here. The orchestra, which will be directed by Abe Levine, will be the largest which has ever supported a minstrel cast in this city.

The Keystone Entertainers are taking an active part in the coming production. Soloists for the minstrel will include Paul Welsh, William McCombs, Harry Masters, Bert Sanford, Chester Biddle, Harry Elwell and Joe Love.

P. J. Iodice, who is in charge of the revue states that several fine novelty acts are being prepared. Arch Cobblin is preparing a Spanish scene with seventeen performers, while Miss Nellie Brady is developing a fine new act. Another feature will be the appearance of Al Evans, star of "Parr" and several other comedy and dance acts.

Reserved seats will be placed on sale at Snyder's piano store Monday, May 6th.

Secret Of Happiness Told By Centenarian

OMAHA, May 2.—William J. Everitt, who dates his birth back to April 17, 1822 at Wapping, England, gave some centenarian advice on happiness to a group of fellow members at First Christian Church recently, and explained why he believes Omaha was a better town in the good old days of sixty and seventy years ago than as a modern metropolis.

"We ain't doin' right in Omaha," he said. "There used to be a lot more real Christianity around here. Nowadays too many folks just talk religion and don't practice it."
"There ain't near as much sociability as there used to be, in the churches or outside. That's the main trouble with this modern fast life and big city stuff. There's no sense in lettin' the good things, like sociability, die out."

But he offers no personal complaints. Despite poverty, increasing deafness and failing sight, he stood before his hearers and staunchly declared himself glad to be alive and desirous of extending his span of years indefinitely.

Every year of my life has been a happy year for me, even though happiness has been mixed with a lot of trouble," he said. "Just do the best you can toward living a Christian life and you'll be happy, too, at 106, if you live that long. I know many people would live a lot longer if they'd just quit worryin' about things."

THE ONLY GOOSE FOR GANDER

I never knew Gobbler's wives were afraid of him!" exclaimed the boy, "but now that I come to think of it, I do believe Gobbler is 'fussing about something most of the time.'"
"Of course, he is—scolding his wives and fighting with them every chance he gets! Now, there is nothing like that in our family. Wife and I are the most devoted couple you ever saw." Gander looked fondly over at Mrs. Goose.

"I took long enough to make up my mind the spring I was a gay Gander, but as soon as I set my eyes upon Grace, I knew she was the Goose for me."
"My, but she was a beautiful bird in those days! Her eyes were as bright as jewels, her feathers shone like silver, and she was as smart as a jet black crow. I wasn't the only Gander in love with Grace, and I had an awful time trying to win her favor. One morning, though, just as the sun was rising, she whispered 'Yes.' You can be sure we lost no time in setting out on our wedding journey, for she was just as anxious as I was to start housekeeping, and it would never do to build a home anywhere but in the nesting meadows of the North."

"What a honeymoon we had! She and I did not go alone, you know, but set sail with a lot of other lovers like ourselves, and a jolly company we were! Fun and feasting were ours all along the route. Many a good time have wife and I had since that day, but none quite so merry and care-free!"

"Gander, oh, Gander!" a call from Mrs. Wild Goose interrupted her husband in his story. "I'd like to ask your advice. Will you swim over for a moment?"

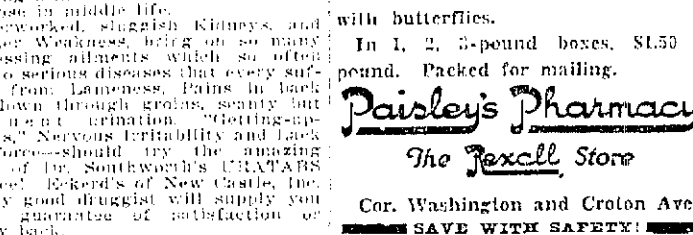

"Coming, dearie, coming right along," replied Wild Gander at once, and he waited just long enough to say to Peter: "And you come, too!" before he started.

The boy was not at all sure that Mrs. Goose wanted to meet him, but she looked like such a pleasant sort of bird he was certain she would never tell him so, even if she didn't. Peter had not found out quite all he wished to know about the Wild Goose family, either—the Goslings.

Seven Out Of Ten Are Victims But Water Tablets Bring Swift, Amazing Relief With Renewed Vital Force

"No one knows better than I, the horror of joyless days and sleepless nights. The lifeless times when I felt hopeless and helpless—and when my weakness caused me the most intense humiliation. Only those who have gone through such tortures can possibly realize my great satisfaction when Dr. Southworth's WATER TABLETS brought me quick relief. WATER TABLETS are truly wonderful, and I give them full praise." Such amazing evidence serves as convincing proof of the power of WATER TABLETS to relieve those distressing ailments so often a handicap to those in middle life.

$2,000 Asked For White Allegator, First Ever Found

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. May 2.—Two thousand dollars for an alligator! Those who prefer blonds will have to pay that much to W. D. Godfrey, alligator farm owner, for what he believes the only white alligator in existence—rare as the celebrated white elephant of India.

Godfrey and his taxidermist, Oscar Swed, were searching in Florida swamps for turtle when they saw what looked like a whitewashed fence rail moving. The rail turned out to be a six-foot saurian, apparently a yellowish white form trailing through a lime pit.

Later, after its capture, the alligator men found they had an albino alligator—the first ever known in Florida.

An offer of $2,000 from the London zoo was turned down. The rank and file of dusty alligators sell for $15 to 20, but whoever heard of a white one?

Godfrey believes his find is 17 years old, judging by its weight, 60 pounds, and length. This is youth for an alligator, as many live for hundreds of years. The albino is said to be unusually ferocious.

"Fruit Early, Crops Late," County Agent

Farm work in the county is just H. R. McCulloch, despite the fact that about 10 days behind schedule, thus blossoms were a week to 10 days ahead far in the season, states county agent, of the average time this spring.

The plowing season is not, states the agent, much behind our local opinion however, that thus far ever schedule which is not average. Of late years, the rains and cold weather have held off farm work to some extent and this spring the same thing is being experienced to some degree.

McCulloch states that in some sections of the county where soil conditions permit, there has been some plowing done, but that this amount is small to what remains to be done as yet.

Necessity is the mother of invention some way to keep house these days without indulging in luxuries.

The best cure for sensitive feelings is a little less petting and a little more spanking.

Rinso

in tub or washer.. for whiter washes, safely

(Thousands write us letters like this)

"Don't even have to boil"
Says Mrs. J. F. Burckart
507 N. Mercer St.

"Rinso makes such creamy, cleansing suds in our hard water that all the dirt just soaks out. You don't even have to boil—clothes come out so snowy! I love the way it brightens colored clothes, too."

MRS. J. F. BURCKART,
507 N. Mercer St., New Castle, Pa.

Makers of 36 washers endorse it

The makers of 36 leading washers say, "Use Rinso for whiter washes and for safety." All you need in tub or washer—no bar soaps, chips, softeners. Rich, lasting suds in hardest water. No scrubbing, no boiling with Rinso! It besters dirt. Saves clothes—hands, too.

One cupful of this compact, granulated, hard-water soap gives more suds than two cupfuls of puffed-up soap.

Freight Business Showing Increase

Prospects for summer freight business over the Erie and Ashland division of the Pennsylvania railroad look very good, said C. I. Wetmore, chief clerk to the freight agents of the local depot this morning.

"Business we are handling this spring," Mr. Wetmore continued, "amounts to considerably more than that taken care of during the same period in 1928. Every regular train is being used to handle the shipments of the freight house, and that means 34, including the tallmen, loaders, truckers and office men."

The chief clerk said the division's shipments were usually good this time of the year. One and other shipments which comprise the lake trade will soon commence and give the prevailing business another boost.

Several local plants are bringing to the city a number of large shipments daily and indications now are that additional industries here will require extra railroad work in the very near future.

"Right now when building and other types of construction work gets under way for the summer, the railroad shipments are good," he concluded.

Will Conduct A Series Of Union Evangelistic Services At Van, Pa.

E. J. Berquist, former superintendent of the City Rescue Mission returned to this city Wednesday evening from Buffalo, N. Y., where he has been conducting a series of evangelistic services of four weeks at the Buffalo City mission.

Mr. Berquist also conducted services each evening during Holy Week and for three Sundays in Rev. Churchhill's tabernacle of Buffalo, which seats several thousand people. He occupied the pulpit several times in the Baptist church of which Rev. George Leichter was pastor. Rev. Leichter who has been heard often in New Castle is now pastor of the College Street Baptist church of Toronto, Can.

Mr. Berquist will leave in a few days for Van, Pa., where he will conduct a Union meeting in the Methodist church of that place. He expects to continue these services for three weeks being there four Sundays.

REPORTS SEEING BODY IN RIVER

Police Investigate But Fail To Find Any Trace Of Body

A section man located in the seventh ward district reported to the police Wednesday morning that about 3:30 o'clock he had seen the body of a man floating downstream. It was believed to be that of Michael Shornack of Charles street, who was drowned near the steel mill several weeks ago.

Officers Thomas Lynch and Charles Longstrech went to West Pittsburgh and walked the banks of the river from that point up to the Cherry street bridge without having seen the body. The condition of the river is such that if the man making the report did so, a body it is probably carried on down the stream below West Pittsburgh.

Youth Overcome By Fumes In Railroad Shops, Battles Gamely Against Death

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, May 2.—A resolution pledging support to Governor John S. Fisher in his efforts to supervise the appointment and conduct of industrial police was passed at a meeting of the Pennsylvania chiefs of police association today.

The resolution urged the public of Pennsylvania not to misjudge any body of men of any such force because of any irresponsible actions of individuals.

Monaghan Testifies In Court Today At Magistrate's Trial

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Surprise after surprise was given the overcrowded quarter sessions courtroom at Judge Eugene Alessandrini today when District Attorney John Monaghan and former District Attorney Charles Edwin Fox took the stand for the prosecution in the trial of Magistrate Robert J. Patton on "straw bail" charges.

Both Monaghan and Fox denied emphatically allegations made by Charles L. Seitzer, confessed straw bail peddler, that the two men had promised him that he would be kept in prison only a year if he turned state's evidence. The commonwealth then closed its case.

Hardly had the noted attorneys left the stand than defense counsel summoned a brilliant array of jurists and prominent politicians as character witnesses for Patton. Judge Harry S. McDevitt, president judge of common pleas court, testified he had known Patton for 20 years and that his career had always been marked by uprightness and honesty. He was followed in quick succession by Augustus Dixie, president pro tempore of the state senate, former Mayor J. Hampton Moore, Judge John R. Walsh of the municipal courts, Magistrates Roberts and Carner and Attorney William A. Gray.

Junior High Latin Champs

PERRY REHER, JR.

ROBERT AILEY

George Washington junior high school participants in the recent Latin tournament sponsored among the junior high school children of the city came out with living honors. Our entrant won for himself the title of "Summa Cum Laude," the highest honor while another took second place.

Perry Lee Reher, Jr., son of Perry L. Reher of 140 Garfield avenue, captured the first place rank over all junior high school Latin pupils in the city.

Perry, who is 12 years of age and who will enter the senior high school when he is one year older, is the brother of Miss Virginia Reher, honor student in Latin at Westminster.

Perry has been on the honor roll since he first entered George Washington. He is versatile in all respects, this being clearly manifested but a few days ago when he won for himself the honor of representing his school in the city-wide school marble tournament on May 11.

Robert James Ailey, a student of Grade 9A as is Reher, competed in the Latin examination and took second honors, or the title of "Magna Cum Laude," with greatest praise.

Ailey is the son of Attorney and Mrs. Mont L. Ailey of the Youngstown road, is 13 years old, and will enter the senior high school next fall. His name has also been on the school honor roll continually since he entered that institution, last fall.

Select Place Of Meeting Next Year Of Presbyterian

Will Meet In New Presbyterian Church At Leesburg If Completed In Time

Providing that the new Presbyterian church at Leesburg will be completed in time the 55th annual assembly of the Shenango Women's Presbyterian society will be held next year in the new church.

Rev. Lloyd who became pastor of the Leesburg congregation just a short time before the building was destroyed by fire last winter extended a cordial invitation for the meeting of the Presbyterian at the 54th annual meeting of Shenango Presbyterian which closed Wednesday afternoon in the Westfield Presbyterian church after a most successful two days session.

The closing session on Wednesday afternoon was featured by a consecration service with Mrs. W. W. Duff presiding. Mrs. Duff who is a most pleasing and entertaining speaker had for the keynote of her talk the word "Service." Mrs. Duff who is a returned missionary from India now with her husband the Rev. Wendall Duff is taking a special course in the University of Chicago preparatory to returning to India, gave several addresses throughout the assembly and was one of the interesting speakers on the program.

Miss Gertrude Vint, national secretary of the eastern district gave a very instructive talk of work among the Indians.

The afternoon service closed about 4 o'clock with an impressive communion service in charge of the pastor of the Westfield church, Rev. Ross Haverfield.

The entire meeting was considered one of the best from a standpoint of attendance held in years. Every society of the churches of the Shenango Presbytery were well represented. A fine atmosphere of fellowship prevailed throughout the sessions.

The missionaries of the Presbytery include Mrs. W. W. Duff, Mrs. J. M. Imrie, Miss Clara Hedberg, Miss Ruth Swanson, Miss Mary McCallum and Miss Vena Howard.

Brown Will Get Sentence Tuesday

Former State Senator Will Be Called Before Judge Gibson For Sentence

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Guy W. Brown, former state senator and banker, convicted February 16 in the federal district court for misapplication of funds of the Fayette City National Bank and the First National Bank of Webster, of which institutions he was vice president, will be sentenced Tuesday by Judge R. M. Gibson, with his brother, Jesse R. Brown, who was a vice president of the Fayette City Bank and a director of the Webster bank. The latter pleaded no defense to a charge of misapplication of funds of the latter bank.

Judge Gibson yesterday afternoon handed down an opinion denying the petition of Guy Brown for a new trial. The trial of the latter lasted two weeks and the jury found him guilty on 26 counts. Jesse Brown was not implicated in the alleged irregularities in the Webster bank. For many years Guy Brown was an influential banker in Fayette county, prominent in church affairs and elected to the state Senate from that county.

Brown Denied New Trial By Gibson

Judge Gibson Refuses New Trial To Guy W. Brown, Convicted Embezzler

International News Service. PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Guy W. Brown, Fayette county banker, Wednesday was denied a new trial by Federal Judge R. M. Gibson on charges of misapplication of the funds of the Fayette City National Bank and the First National Bank of Webster.

Funds in excess of $125,000 were involved in the charges, as well as church money entrusted to Brown's care by the Redstone Presbyterian.

Brown, a former state senator from Fayette county, was convicted after a long trial. His alleged manipulations led to the failure of both banks.

Severe Itching, Burning Eczema on Baby's Head. Cuticura Healed.

"When my baby was a month old eczema broke out on her head. It started with a rash and later turned into blisters. The itching and burning were so severe that she scratched her head continually. She was very cross and fretful, and we had to keep her head covered so that she could not scratch. It was so sore she could not sleep and kept me awake.

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased more and in a couple of weeks she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Dorothy Herman, 2735 Sexton Pl., Bronx, N. Y., June 29, 1928.

Annual Clean Up Day Is Announced

Boy Scouts To Aid Grove City Citizens In Annual Clean-up May 10

GROVE CITY, May 2.—May 10 has been set as the date for the annual clean-up day of accumulated rubbish.

Boy Scouts and their leaders under the direction of the Civic committee of the Commercial club will look after the work. The boys will be equipped from school trucks will begin early in the morning on the date set.

The following members of the Civic committee are making the arrangements: Dr. C. H. Williamson, John Bonnett, Dr. C. E. Petrie, H. T. Jones and G. H. Crowder.

HOME FROM CONVENTION. W. D. Mercer, local manager of the J. C. Penny store in this city arrived home after spending last week in Cleveland attending a convention of store managers of this year.

ENTERTAIN STUDENTS. Principals and alternates who took part in the Mercer county round-up were entertained at the Penn-Grove hotel yesterday. Half of the group were guests of the Rotary club for luncheon. The other half were present at a 6 o'clock dinner given by the Kiwanis club last evening. Some of the contestants entertained their hosts.

WOMEN VOTEES TO MEET. Grove City will be host to the members of the League of Women Voters of Region 9 who will convene here May 24 at the Penn-Grove hotel. A definite program is taking form and it is expected that many members of the organization will attend. The region comprises the counties of Beaver, Butler, Crawford, Lawrence, Mercer, Erie, Forest, Warren and Venango.

A luncheon at 12:30 in the hotel will precede the convention program. Mrs. W. G. Reagle chairman of the Mercer county league is in charge of local arrangements.

Miss Gertrude Ely of Philadelphia, state chairman of the league will be the principal speaker and Mrs. Morton Sill of Rochester, Pa., will speak on "How to Enlarge and Strengthen the League." Mrs. H. J. Barrett of Erie will speak on "How to Finance the League." Mrs. T. A. George of North Liberty will have for her subject "What the League is all About." Tickets for the luncheon may be secured by calling any of the committee.

FIRST CLASS OFFICE. The Grove City postoffice has been named a first class office according to word received here today from Washington by Postmaster O. J. Firm. Offices whose sale total $40,000 and better are included in this class. The Grove City office ran over that amount in 1920.

The new rating takes effect on July 1 the department advises. More carriers and additional clerks in the office and new additions to the office equipment can be secured now as a result of the increased business.

BORO IN GOOD SHAPE. The finances of Grove City are in the best shape of years. The borough has already reduced their outstanding note obligations by many thousands of dollars and have a surplus on hand with which to further reduce the amount.

PLANT TO RESUME. Just as soon as business conditions adjust themselves the Coopers & Lysons plant here will resume active operations. It is learned today. The plant is now in the re-adjustment period following the consolidation.

Colonel Moudy Speaks Tonight
Will Make Patriotic Address At New Wilmington; Other News Notes

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, May 2.—At 8 o'clock this evening many of the New Wilmington townspeople will gather in the Presbyterian church auditorium to hear Colonel Alfred L. Moudy deliver a patriotic lecture. Col. Moudy who served in the late war and who is now representing the Flying Squadron Foundation will speak on the subject, "The Constitution—The Rock of Liberty." No admission is being charged for this lecture.

The Town Girls club of Westminster college held a picnic in Shaker Hollow here Tuesday afternoon. Most of the members of the organization were present and enjoyed a great variety of refreshments.

Compliments for the success of the social event, poured in upon Miss Margaret Smith, head of arrangements, upon the conclusion of the picnic. Miss Mildred Ailman, college librarian, was a special guest.

Intensive training for the county meet, which is to be staged in the near future, has been inaugurated by the activity of the New Wilmington high school track squad. Coach Olson has welcomed good weather to condition his athletes.

Hutchison, Newton, Patterson and Engelson all show promise of developing into point-guard tracksters for the local school.

Big Stone Church Will Be Moved

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—St. Clements' Protestant Episcopal church, a stone structure weighing 5,000 tons, including the church proper, parish house and rectory, will be moved a distance of 40 feet in what is believed to be one of the most delicate engineering feats ever undertaken in this city. The John Eckman, Jr., company of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, will do the moving.

The structure will be moved bodily inch by inch. It is 228 feet long and 114 feet wide.

Even for "Fussy" Appetites

Of course, everyone who enjoys his breakfast likes Heinz Rice Flakes. But even those with "finicky" appetites like them, too! Which proves that they must be "extra special".

And they are. Imagine—fairly-like flakes of dainty crispness. Crunchy as toasted nut-meats—and better tasting. Golden-brown. Good!

Another thing. They're good for you! Not just because they're food—but because of a special health quality imparted by a new, patented, Heinz process of cereal-making. A process which transforms the natural roughage of the rice into a pure, edible cellulose giving Heinz Rice Flakes the properties of a gentle, natural laxative. Isn't that good? Oh, indeed it is—and they are!

Sinclair May Get Few Days Respite

New Legal Move May Give Harry F. Sinclair Few More Days Of Freedom

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, May 2.—Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire oil operator, may gain a few days respite while legal formalities, which will make effective a three months jail sentence for refusal to answer questions of the Senate Public Lands committee, are being carried out.

The mandate of the supreme court, which affirmed his conviction in the District of Columbia Supreme Court either on May 3 or Saturday, May 4, twenty-five days after the high court's decision was given.

Because the mandate is going down the last of the week, it is probable that it will not be presented to Justice Hitz, the trial judge until next week. Another order is then to be issued.

Sinclair, according to reports here, had made preparations to begin his jail sentence on May 4, but he is expected to enjoy the freedom of another week-end before he is compelled to enter jail.

Sugar beet growers and the Irish Sugar Manufacturing Company, at Carlow, Ireland, which receives a large subsidy from the Free State Government, have locked horns over the price of beets, and the growers have refused to deal with the company.

Your Broadway AND Mine BY WALTER WINCHELL

By Central Press.

NEW YORK, May 2.—A concrete example of what extremes some desperate managers will go to to bunk the public is certified by the advertisements of a colored revue. The N. Y. Times was quoted as saying of it: "Sets the standard of excellence for the town's negro song-and-dance pieces."

What the N. Y. Times actually said was: "Although it is many cuts below the long-lived Black-birds which will set the standard of excellence for the town's negro song-and-dance pieces it has some fairly good hoofing."

THE PASSION PLAY. Before an attentive first-night crowd of 6,200 persons the theater's capacity, "The Passion Play" directed from Freiburg, Baden, was proffered by Morris Gest at the Hippodrome. It is described in the play-bill as the Pageant Sublime and so it seemed to all of us who were spellbound by the magic of David Belasco who directed the original cast from Freiburg and the tense Biblical tale which is spoken in German.

The famous temple of amusement which only recently was sold to a combining who intend to erect an office edifice on the site was renovated by Mr. Gest at a cost it is said of $300,000. The stage proscenium, and part of the auditorium including several rows of front pews were redecorated in the cathedral mood and painted glass doors now greet the auditor.

It is a spectacle to be seen this great drama beautifully described even in a foreign tongue. And those who might not be familiar with the Good Book may appreciate the Freiburg artists with their amazing descriptive powers.

It is reverently done of course and it is frequently compelling. Particularly fine is an early scene when the entire stage is crowded with the tremendously large cast who greet The Christus as essayed by Adolph Fassnacht. His brother George plays Judas. Both are grand players and the entire Fassnacht family is in the production. Amalies Fassnacht is Mary Magdalene. Johannes is done by George Fassnacht, Jr., and The Blind Woman is essayed by Augusta Fassnacht.

An orchestra of more than 100 and an almost as large choir accompany the pageant throughout. The lightings, colorings and sets are expertly arranged and in the basement where the Hippodrome's famous Toyland used to be Gest has designed a miniature Jerusalem. This may be inspected before the 8:30 curtain.

MAN ABOUT TOWN. The only genuine live one and spender left on Broadway frequents a few in a legitimate racket and is the only one in the otherwise plump sector. He spends little in the night clubs, the heaviest part of his bankroll going to the entertainers. He only spends from $60 to $70 a night for his party on white rock or chow mein and he brings his own laughing syrup.

But the entertainers and small orchestra crew that collect about his table and render contagious torch ballads are rewarded with a brand new $1,000 bill which is split among them.

And he comes six nights a week! ADD GEST CRITICS. "I'm with Morris Gest now and getting $500 per week."

"What for?"

"For letting him say I'm getting $5,000."

Osteopaths Will Attend Convention

Drs. C. W. Jones, B. M. Rodgers and H. M. Smith of this city will attend the Pennsylvania Osteopathic association at the Penn Grove hotel and Basking-Rossman, Osteopathic hospital in Grove City on Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4.

Dental Clinics Prove Effective

Exceptional Interest Shown In Work In New Castle Schools Is Last Decade

Interest in dental hygiene in the New Castle schools has made rapid progress during the past ten years and today is at a high point of perfection due to the untiring efforts of those who have been in charge of the work in recent years.

Dental as well as medical inspection of students in the local schools is practically a recent innovation. Appointment of a school dentist was made only about ten years ago.

Today in addition to a school dentist who holds clinics each morning in the schools there are two dental hygienists according to Miss Margaret Jeffries, school hygienist. The interest of the pupils has increased each year and today the different schools are engaged in a contest to reach a point of perfection.

Two schools, Highland avenue and Arthur McGill school expect to attain 100 per cent in efficiency in having each pupil approved by the school dentist or hygienist for perfect teeth, or to have submitted a report showing that all corrective work possible has been done on their teeth by their own family dentist.

These measures are being undertaken in the interest of the health of the pupils and are being particularly stressed this week in connection with the observance of State Dental Health Week.

Two clinics are established in the George Washington Junior High school and the Lincoln and Garfield building with Dr. Charles Booner in charge. In addition a portable dental equipment is taken to the Mahoningtown and Croton avenue buildings by the hygienists. Miss Jeffries and Miss Lois Blighins where the pupils teeth are cleaned and minor defects remedied.

Delegations Make Visit To Capital

County Commissioners Are Securing Approval Of Road Programs

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, May 2.—The executive offices of the Department of Highways each day are taking on a sign of increasing activity and delegations from more than a score of counties already have conferred with department officials regarding allocation of funds under the Wheeler bill. Knowing that approval of the bill was certain, county officials prepared to take advantage of its provisions as soon as it had reached the governor's desk.

Governor John S. Fisher immediately after passage of the bill instructed department officials to pay special attention to the program of $23,000,000 for county road construction during the next biennium.

For the first time in the history of the state each county will now be certain of receiving at least $200,000 for road construction within its borders.

County commissioners are empowered not only to select the sections to be improved, but also the type of paving to be used. In a number of counties tentative selections already have been made and county officials are anxious for the arrival of June 1 when the first of the biennium funds will be available for allocation.

Detroit Police Hold Youngster In Murder Case

(International News Service) MORGANTOWN, W. Va., May 2.—Advised by Detroit police that James Greathouse, 17, of Morgantown had walked into Detroit police station and told a story of being kidnapped from here last Saturday, Police Chief C. W. Smith of Morgantown Wednesday wired the Michigan authorities to hold Greathouse for questioning in connection with the slaying of Charles Cassidy, 35.

According to word received here, Greathouse told Detroit police he had been kidnapped from an automobile in which he and Cassidy had gone to a nearby coal camp to collect rent from a friend. Cassidy was thrown from the car according to the youth's story and he was forced to drive to Pittsburgh and then to Detroit. He said that he had been held prisoner until this Wednesday morning in Detroit.

Cassidy's body was found on the Evansdale Pike near here Saturday with two bullet wounds in it.

Rain Delays Road Oiling Schedules

HARRISBURG, May 2.—The Department of Highways today announced that spring surface treatment work is under way in various engineering divisions throughout the State. This phase of the work was started April 15, but owing to inclement weather conditions the program was somewhat delayed. With a few days of sunshine, however, the oiling crews expected to make up some of the lost time. It was hoped to complete the surface treatment by June 1, but due to the weather conditions the program will be delayed until approximately June 15.

During June the first application of dust laying oil will be placed on earth roads. This work should be completed by July 15, 1929.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Gold fish 18 inches long, sounds like a fisherman's night mare, or the fabrication of some Florida booster ad. Up until yesterday I had always thought that the stories from the Moravia yard office were flavored with a little strawberry jam, or apple sauce, but truth will out. The fish are there. Great, large fellows that chase each other around the pond and look like trout or bass that have been painted. Silver fish that look like small blimps floating under water, and blue gills that follow you as you walk around the edge of the pond.

Don't get frightened. It isn't any pipe dream I drove a lot of miles over cinders yesterday afternoon to see them down in what is known as the Hump Yard of the Pennsylvania. Roger Francis had been giving this column so many stories about gold fish that something had to be done and it was done.

Several years ago when the yard was being made a chap named Booth dug out a small depression in the ground and let the spring water fill it up. Then he put in some ordinary gold fish and a few blue gills. He wanted to find out if the gold fish would grow large in an outdoor pond. He found it out and unless you can see them for yourselves you too would hardly credit it.

However Francis and Frank Grace, and Bill Davis and Gregory Gilmore still tell some that sound too fishy. For instance, they gave me a story about the gold fish chasing each other up on the bank early in the morning. Apparently they come out on the bank for air or something. And I still don't believe that the gold fish get together in the cool of the evening and sing "Sweet Adeline." Not even gold fish can do that. Only the poor human fish will sing that.

The blue gills are as tame as a house dog. Toss something on the water and they come champing up for a taste. Walk around to the edge and they follow you with what is nearly a pleading look in their eyes as fish can get. They even chew tobacco.

Now I suppose if those fish get any larger, Superintendent Raymond Swenk will be stopping all passenger trains in the Moravia yard for the passengers to get out and take a look. And the advertisements for the E. & A. division will probably call it "The Gold Fish Route."

But I still don't believe that they sing quarters.

Yesterday was as perfect a May day as anyone could order and the pupils of St. Philip and James Parochial school took advantage of it. Their health program presented in the school yard was an interesting one. First the youngsters paraded over part of the hill and came back to the school yard. Then the program.

gentlemen prefer blondes they would have had a field day yesterday at that health program. Never saw such a preponderance of blondes in any one group. Out of approximately 200 little girls in the crowd about 189 of them were blondes, with the others hardly in the brunette class.

Roamed around the B. and O. shops a while later in the afternoon. Every time I go down there it looks as though they have some larger freight engines. They have them so large now that they have to enlarge the round house to care for them and put in some new tracks.

Years ago oh many years ago I was cashier in that restaurant down at the B. and O. The engine crews used to stop in for their beans and cakes and every one of them was proud of his engine. Those engines they had then would almost fit into the water tanks of the present day "hogs" and a full meal of coal for the old engines would hardly be a lunch for the ones they are now using.

There must be something wrong with this column lately. Homer Drake hasn't found any grammatical errors for a month and either he isn't reading it or else the day of miracles isn't past.

Met Stan Reese last night and Stan hasn't forgot the chocolate drop cake. One of those cakes that has icing an inch thick on it with the inside still warm from the oven. Some afternoon when the lunch isn't too good I'll drop over for the cake.

Just in passing. Have you bought your tickets for the Minstrel show yet? The show itself will be well worth your money but the proceeds will do a lot of good also. It is for the new Jameson Memorial hospital and there isn't a man, woman or child in this city who shouldn't buy a ticket.

Harry Long sold me two of them a few days ago and now I can't find them. There will be no dead-heads at that show which means that I'm going to have to buy two more or else find the ones that are lost.

CLARK ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY TO CHARGE.
R. R. Clark of the seventh ward district, arrested Tuesday night by the police and taken before Alderman J. Lee Cooper Wednesday, where a charge of violating the Snyder act, was made against him by Chief of Police C. C. Horner, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of possessing when arraigned. He gave bail in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance at the June term of court, when his case will be disposed of.

Miners Strike, Wages Reduced

Miners At New Kensington Refuse Cut In Wages And Stage Walkout

(International News Service)
NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., May 2.—The Barking mine of the Hillman Coal and Coke Company was idle today as 300 miners who went on strike over a wage reduction refused to return to work.

The strikers held a meeting in Broad hall, New Kensington and decided not to accept the pay cut. Before the meeting a committee of the miners had conferred with officials of the coal company but was unable to reach an agreement.

The miners walked out yesterday when the new wage scale was posted. This scale reduced the day rate from $4.80 to $4.40 and the tonnage rate over the wage reduction, also put into effect by the Pittsburgh Coal Co.

According to reports to P. T. Fagan, mine union leader at Pittsburgh, the Barking miners are the first to strike from 53 cents to 47 cents.

An Emergency Chart

THE practical first aid man doesn't waste any time hunting up procedure. One of the big problems in first aid work is stopping the flow of blood. Here's a mighty practical little suggestion to first aid workers, offered by the National Safety Council. In your first-aid kit carry an anatomical chart of the human body, showing just where and how to apply the pressure when there is danger of bleeding to death. The practical gentleman who owns the above kit sees the picture the moment he opens his case.

Personal Mention

Mrs. T. G. Douglas of Northview avenue is seriously ill at her home. Russell Hill and Miss Dorothy Hill of Pittsburgh, have concluded a short visit with their father Alex Hill of 144 East Long avenue.

Miss Ruth Johnson of Smithfield street left today for Detroit, Mich., where she will spend two months with her brother, Walter Johnson.

The Way OF THE World

MOTOR MERCHANDISING

The efforts of Warren E. Griffith, president of the National Automobile Dealers' Association, to bring the motor car dealer and the manufacturer into a new kind of co-operation is a notable example of what organization can do at its best. Today the automobile dealer faces a serious, if not deplorable, situation because of the enormous volume of used cars and the manner of handling them on the part of many dealers. Griffith, making an attempt to build a factory-dealers-relations conference committee, may bring about a new merchandising method. The public, as usual, is the most interested party. There can be no healthy and generally distributed prosperity so long as there are desert spots of unprofitable merchandising.

WHAT FOR OUR MONEY?

Thousands of young people are going to be graduated from our public schools in a few weeks. They have been educated, or at least given the opportunity of education at the expense of us, the taxpayers. Has the investment on our part been a good one? What do we get for our money? These young people may be too young to feel much of a sense of responsibility, but are they going to feel that responsibility a little later? What are they going to give us in return for our investment? Schools are expensive institutions. Do pupils often think of that? Will they think of it when they are of an age to regard citizenship in more serious fashion?

WHERE OUR MONEY GOES

It is said that 82 cents out of every dollar spent by the government goes for war—past, present or prospective. Something wrong about that. This is not civilization. Figures like that belong in an age of barbarism. A battleship costs at least $30,000,000. Sixty school houses then, at $500,000 each. One doesn't have to be a pa-er to see that the emphasis is all wrong.

PROHIBITION AND YOUTH

Two girls talked the other day with the writer of this column. They are unusually intelligent girls. One is 16, one 18. They both said the prohibition law did not seem to do anything to help the habits of young folks as far as drinking is concerned. "Prohibition may help in some ways; it is a hindrance in others." Neither girl drinks, but they know much about the habits of many other girls. What they say is interesting and deserving of thought. It is to be hoped the president's proposed commission to investigate prohibition will go more than investigate ways and means of enforcing the present laws. Let's have the good sense and the courage to look as deeply and thoughtfully as we can into the whole principle and into the practice.

Tells Of Progress In Child Welfare

HARRISBURG, May 2.—The leading article of the Mental Health Bulletin, published monthly for the Department of Welfare by the Community Service Department of the Danville State Hospital was written by Miss Mary S. Labaree, director of the bureau of children, State Department of Welfare.

Miss Labaree cited the history of child welfare as a State obligation and the modern methods employed under the State laws with statistics showing the progress of the work.

protect children

Children usually come home from school with a case of dandruff that may lead to baldness. They get it from contact with others; promiscuous use of combs, brushes and wash basins. For dandruff, being a germ condition, is highly infectious. Examine scalps often, and at the first sign of dandruff, douse on Listerine full strength, which is powerful against germs. Keep it up systematically for several days. To your delight, you will often find that your loose dandruff has disappeared and that little scalps are clean, sweet and healthy.

While soothing and healing, full strength Listerine is so active, it kills even the Staphylococcus Aureus (pus) and Bacillus Typhosus (typhoid) germs—200,000,000 of them in 15 seconds. This statement we can prove to the entire satisfaction of the medical profession. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.

Will Jail Buyer As Well As Seller

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., May 2.—May day ended the heyday of bootleggers in Jefferson county. Judge W. T. Darr, presiding over the present term of criminal court at Brookville this week, meted out fines and jail sentences to confessed bootleggers that not only took away their breath, but from eight months to three years of their liberty. To add to the excitement, District Attorney Walter E. Morris made a statement before the court that he "would not only prosecute the bootleggers, but that the buyers would suffer as well."

YOUR HOUSE NEED PAINT? ... THEN REMEMBER—

PROTECTION comes from Both Ends of the Paint Brush

HERE are the partners to paint your house—an experienced painter on one end of the brush... and pure lead paint on the other. They assure complete and lasting paint protection for your property.

The experienced painter—the master painter—has been beautifying and protecting houses with pure lead paint since early American days. Pure lead paint is the kind made with Dutch Boy white-lead... the kind that gives a tough, durable film which doesn't crack or scale.

Pennsy Vets Are Retired

Two Division Men Close Half Century Of Faithful Work

Ell S. Randall, of 329 Vogan avenue, engineer on the Erie and Ashtabula division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was retired from the active service of the company Wednesday. Mr. Randall, who spent 49 years in the railroad game, reached the age of 70 on April 2.

It was in the spring of 1880 that Mr. Randall decided he wanted to be a railroad and secured a job as laborer on the work train on what was then known as the Erie and Pittsburgh railroad. After several years of service he was advanced to the position of fireman, then to the other side of the locomotive as engineer on October 1, 1930.

During all his years of service, Mr. Randall was never reprimanded or suspended, which is a remarkable record and one of which any railroad should be proud.

The Erie and Ashtabula also announces the retirement of W. J. Greer who has served as passenger conductor on the division since 1899. Mr. Greer and his family formerly resided at Mahoningtown but moved from there some time ago.

Greer, like Engineer Randall, spent more than 49 years in the service of the Pennsylvania.

Byers School Makes Attendance Reports

South New Castle Boro School Reports Fine Attendance For Month Of April

According to the report of G. W. Conway, principal, of the J. P. Byers school, at South New Castle boro, there have been a large number of the pupils of the school who have not been absent or tardy during the past month.

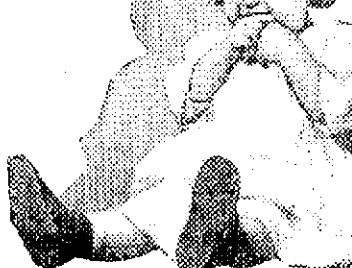

Names of pupils follow:
Grade 1:—Fern Frisbee, Helen Grinzvich, Helen Jachim, Stella Jaskolska, Helen Kachmarich, Helen Matulis, Margaret Mathews, Clara Walzak, Rosetta Caravaggio, John Adamczyk, William Bartos, Arthur Cline, Frank Cline, John Duda, John Fruit, John Kerestely, Mike Martis, Mike Marcin, Frank Makarevich, Pete Rully, Paul Sherbak, Martin Skufca, George Suzo, Steve Stoyanoff, Harold Hollingsworth, Marietta Daugherty, teacher.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved, or diarrhea checked. A vegetable or fruit, a baby remedy present for young folks Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use, in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless, Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has it.

Grade 5:—Marie Benson, Dorothy Bogle, Stephana Bonk, Aletre Dunckerley, Sophia Jaskolska, Laura Kulinski, Doris Miles, Mary Myrta, Lusia Rigby, Alice Scripture, Mary Spanish, Josephine Tomon, Carmen Thompson, Annie Vanasky, Henry Davis, Joe Duda, Dale Hennon, Charles Kulinski, Chester Sovesky, Edward Sovesky, George Spelich, John Zuzow, Claude Thompson, Mike Vincent, Thelma Pankratz, teacher.

Attendance Record At King's Chapel

The following pupils of King's Chapel school have been neither absent nor tardy during the month of April: Edith, Hilda and Jacob Holmhauser, Ella Palmer, Anna and Mary Velniah, Wylie Shima, William and Charles Cover.

These missing one day or less are Oscar Cover, Frank Iorio, Layton Palmer, Tommy Buccia, Dorothy Cover, Anna and Mildred Buccia.

Average daily attendance: Girls 95, boys 85.

Teacher, Bessie Holmes.

NEW GALILEE

Joseph Kelso has returned from a trip to Arizona.

The Damm School closed Wednesday with a picnic dinner at noon. Teacher, Miss Bertha Deane.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Grimm were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sorrel Altman on Sunday evening.

The McAnlis School will close tomorrow and a picnic dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McGeorge and Mr. and Mrs. William Fowler were New Wilmington visitors on Sunday.

Balloon Racers Start Gathering In Pittsburgh

Leading Balloonists Of Country Will Be Starting From Pittsburgh On Saturday

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Pittsburgh has become the starting point of the country's leading balloon racers. The annual gathering of the national association of balloon racers, which is being held at the University of Pittsburgh stadium Saturday.

Commander Charles F. Rosendahl, U. S. N., who will referee the races, was among the first to arrive. Ten pilots and aides who will man some of the dozen entries in the races, also arrived, and Gen. James B. Felt, chief of the army's corps, was expected here from Washington in a plane piloted by Edward G. Gresham of the plane "Question Mark" crew.

Two aides, a pilot and 10 ground men from Lakehurst, N. J., were among the arrivals, as was Lieut. F. M. Reinhardt, in charge of the navy balloon teams.

Capt. W. J. Flood, pilot, and Lieut. U. G. Ent, referees of last year's race here, also are in town.

Today three baby "blimps" are expected from the Goodyear factory, Akron, O. Aboard will be T. W. Lindfield, president of the Goodyear Company, and a number of company officials.

Wax the electric iron with a good grade of paraffin or paraffin about once a month.

PITCHING BUCKERS AREN'T ALWAYS LOSERS IN CONTEST

Just because a 101 Ranch hand is a good rider or even a champion is no reason to assume that he always gets the best of the "wild horses" which he daily mounts with Miller Bros. 101 Ranch Real Wild West which comes to New Castle Tuesday May 7 exhibiting afternoon and evening at Mauch Chunk and Cedar streets.

Each performance finds these "buckers" more proficient in the art of unseating their riders and each performance also finds the riders more intent upon staying on. So when the outlaw bronks start bucking and pitching, it is a fair illustration of that old saying that something is bound to happen when an "irresistible force meets an immovable object." Above is "Brownie" chief of the cowboys battling it out with "Nose Dive" the demon of the 101 corral.

A big street parade, said to be the world's largest, will leave the show grounds at 11 a. m., traveling the principal downtown streets.

Mercer Auditors File Annual Report

Complete Task Of Auditing Books Of County For Year Ending January 1

MERCER, Pa., May 2.—The 1928 county auditors report filed Monday by the trio of officials, W. W. Davis, W. A. Elder and J. W. Black is the most voluminous of any ever recorded in Mercer county.

This is due to the increased taxation tables for 1928 under the provision of the three mill extra tax levied to build the chronic hospital at the County Farm.

It cost $92,735.82 to run the Mercer county court house in 1928. This was the amount paid in salaries. Every official in the building is now on a salary basis, the last to change from the fee to salary system being the sheriff.

Elections in the county cost $15,756.76 during the year; ash and slag road work cost the county $36,489.22; hard road maintenance cost $6,322.83.

The bill for the penal institutions in which Mercer county houses her malefactors totaled $52,035.92.

The largest amount was to the Allegheny County Workhouse for $18,561.75, the Western Penitentiary $10,043.03. These are the big items. The remainder of the sum is distributed among the homes and industrial schools.

PLAN NURSES HOME

Plans for a $10,000 home for nurses and gymnasium which will be built this summer at the Mercer hospital were announced by the owner, Dr. D. E. Vogan, today.

The building is necessary to handle the increasing number of student nurses being taken on. Over 20

FEARED DEATH WAS NEAR; THEN FOUND RELIEF

Ten Herbs Gave Remarkable Results; Complication Of Allments Ended.

Another instance where Ten Herbs, the new medicine with ten wonderful herbal ingredients, gave remarkable relief from a complication of ailments, was related recently by Mrs. Pauline Breisinger, 403 East Fulton Street.

MRS. PAULINE BREISINGER

Butler, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this popular preparation.

"Ten Herbs gave my mother-in-law, Mrs. Barbara Breisinger, 2920 Bank Street, Pittsburgh, wonderful results," Mrs. Breisinger said. "She had stomach trouble for years, and for months at a time was bedfast. Gas and bloating troubled her. Her nerves were in a terrible condition. Half the time she could neither sleep nor eat. She had the worst kind of headaches. Dizziness came on her, and there were awful pains across her back. Her liver was out of order and her complexion was very sallow. Constipation always troubled her. Her head would be stopped up in the morning and there was a ringing in her ears. Her eyes would water and she had a bad cough when she lay down. At times there was a soreness and stiffness all over her like rheumatism. Her blood circulation was poor, and her hands and feet became cold. For some time we feared she might die any day.

"I induced her to take Ten Herbs, and it was remarkable how soon she was out of bed and doing her housework. Her stomach is in the best condition and she is able to eat anything. Her nerves are strong. She is free of dizziness, and headaches and dizziness have disappeared. Her liver is working properly, and constipation has been corrected. Her eyes do not bother her any more, and that awful cough has left her. Her blood circulation is good. She sleeps fine and feels refreshed when morning comes. I surely was surprised when I went to see her and was told that she was able to be at church. It was wonderful the way Ten Herbs helped her, for she is now feeling as well as ever."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

nurses are in attendance now. With the building complete there will be accommodations for 25 nurses.

With this building completed, Dr. Vogan will have an institution costing him $100,000 since his original purchase from the state five years ago.

PLAN COMMENCEMENTS

The following commencement dates have been handed in at the office of the superintendent of schools: Hickory High, May 31st; Sharon High, June 4th; Mercer High, June 12th. There will be 15 high school commencements between the dates of June 1st and June 15th.

TO ENTERTAIN TEAMS

Next Monday night, May 6, Mercer Rotary Club will entertain the members of the Mercer high school basketball team, the coach, Howard Keith, and those who took part in the inter-county literary and music contest, at a dinner at the Hotel Humes. It is probable that the program will be furnished by the guests.

This is an annual event which is appreciated by the guests and greatly enjoyed by the club.

PRAYER MEETING

Prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church, charged from Wednesday night to Thursday due to the fact that Rev. C. E. Lamala, a former pastor, will stop in Mercer on his way to Wabash, Ind., where he has accepted a call. This will give his Mercer friends an opportunity of greeting him.

PLAN FARM MEETINGS

County Farm Agent W. S. Hagar announces the following meetings for this week.

Fredonia Calf Club, Friday evening at the home of Fredonia, Alexander, Grove City Cattle Association, Thursday evening in the Commercial Club rooms. At this meeting plans for the annual cattle show which is to be held June 12 and 14 will be discussed. The quarterly meeting of Pomona Grange will be held on Thursday with Pleasant Ridge Grange as host.

MAY ABANDON CAMP

It is quite possible that the Solid Comfort Fishing Club will not go to camp this year. This will be the first time since 1905. This is believed to be the oldest organization of this kind in this section of the country, and was founded in 1878; for several years they had no regular camp but enjoyed out every year at various places. The present camp is owned by the club and is situated on an island in the French River at North Bay, Ontario, Canada.

For a number of years Q. A. Gordon, Esq., of Mercer, has been secretary and treasurer, and general manager. For a number of years it has been through his personal efforts that the club has held its outings, which have been very popular and enjoyed by people from all parts of Western Pennsylvania, who will be greatly disappointed if the outing is not held this year.

How To Make Airplane Propellers

BY PAUL EDWARD GABER

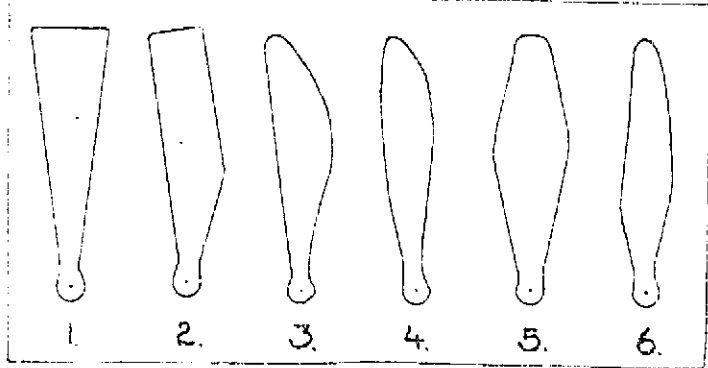

Fig. I

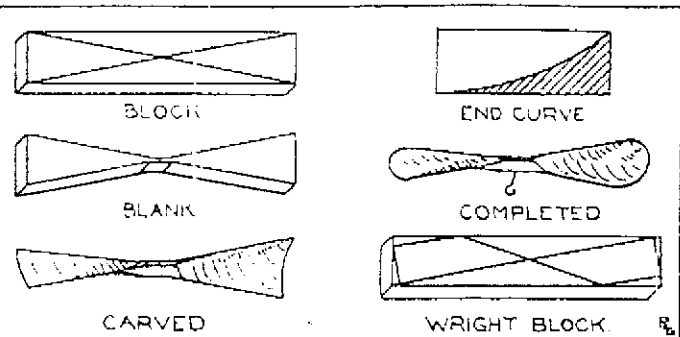

Fig. II

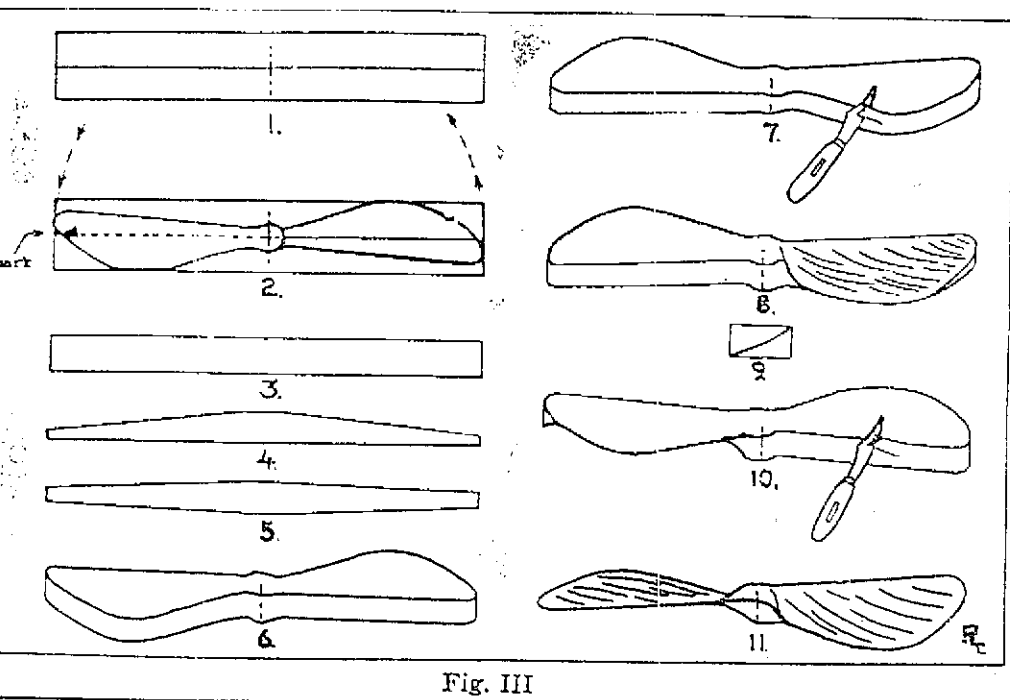

Fig. III

Propellers are often spoken of as air screws, and that title explains their action by indicating that they screw their way through the air. However, propellers do not advance with 100 per cent efficiency, but "slip" a certain amount. This slip is reduced by careful designing and proper relation between the propeller and plane.

The design should be correct, the carving well done and the balance perfect. Propellers are carved from any of the light woods such as spruce, pine, bass, poplar and fir, although balsa is preferable for racing models. The first step is the choice of design and size; next comes the making of the blank and finally the carving.

The blank is the piece from which the propeller is carved and its blades may be of various patterns. Figure 1 shows several blade patterns which represent modern usage. Sketch 1 shows the Langley type. Sketch 2 is that adopted by the Wright Brothers and might be described as a Langley type with one corner cut off. Sketch 3 shows the Columbia type which is similar to a Wright but with its corners rounded off. Sketch 4 shows the type used extensively by the United States Navy on its man-carrying planes.

Sketch 5 is the Diamond pattern which performs well. Sketch 6 is the Carter type which differs from the Diamond in that the projection of the leading edge is advanced from that of the trailing edge. It is used on many of the thin bladed metal propellers that are so efficient on full-size planes. The Langley is the easiest to lay out and carve.

How to Make Prop.
To lay out the Langley "prop" (see Figure II), select a rectangular block of wood having the length, width and thickness of the propeller needed. Lay the piece on its side and draw diagonals on its face from corner to corner. These should intersect at the center and at that point drill a hole for the shaft. Next, saw down the diagonals almost to the center but leave a little wood there for the hub. Carve the blades, cutting from the upper edge to the opposite lower edge of each blade, which when finished should be slightly curved as shown. Put a needle through the shaft hole and balance the blades. Because the pointed ends of the Langley propeller are inefficient, these ends should now be rounded off, after which the prop is again balanced. The completed propeller blades should be very thin so that when held before a light they will be pinkish, but gradually thickening into the hub.

The last sketch in Figure II shows how a Wright blank may be laid out by drawing the second diagonal from points equidistant from each end, but this, as well as any other blade pattern, may easily be laid out by following the method illustrated in Figure III, where the Columbia type is taken as an example. Sketch 1 shows the piece of wood from which the propeller is to be carved. It may be as large or larger than the finished blank. A line is drawn upon it, slightly longer than the propeller diameter. A pattern of the desired blade consisting of the hub and blade, which should be as long as the radius of the propeller, is then cut from cardboard and a mark made on the end. A pin is pushed through the center of the hub and then stuck into the center of the line in the block. The mark is laid over the line and the outline of the pattern is drawn on the block. Next, swing the pattern around so that the mark is over the opposite end of the line as shown in sketch 2, and again draw the outline. This method insures the blades being alike and opposite.

The blank is now cut out. The ideal tool for this is a band saw, but if one is not available a key-hole or coping saw will do, or an ordinary straight saw can be used for the major cuts—the final shape being made with a knife. The next step is to drill a hole through the hub, doing this carefully and making sure it is perpendicular to the surface. In the case of a pine propeller, a bench or hand drill may be used, but with balsa propellers the wood is so soft that an ordinary pin can be pushed through it. We are next concerned with the edge which may be left rectangular as shown in sketch 3 (Figure II) or tapered either from one side or from both sides as in 4 and 5. A rectangular edge produces a slow-turning prop, good for duration; a tapered blade turns faster and imparts speed to the model. The blank cut out is shown in 6.

Sketches 7 to 11 show how the blank is carved. It will be noticed that the curved edge is chosen for the entering edge of the prop. This is in accordance with best results as curved entering edges have proved to be better than straight ones. In sketch 7, the carving is started. The wood is cut away from the upper edge to the opposite lower edge, curving the blade slightly as shown in sketch 8. Next, carve the same side of the opposite blade, put a needle in the hub and balance the blades evenly, then sandpaper smooth. The other sides are carved as shown in sketch 10.

When finished it should be slightly less than 1-16 of an inch in thickness, gradually increasing to the hub; the outer two-thirds should be uniformly thin. The propeller is again balanced and sandpapered, and the hub cut down as much as possible to reduce weight, but not at the expense of strength. The propellers of record-making models have hubs as thin as 1-8 of an inch, but for the model-maker's first efforts, he should have a thicker hub to avoid the possibility of breakage.

The foregoing description applies to a right-handed propeller; a left-handed one is carved by making the cuts in the opposite direction; that is, the blank would be laid as in sketch 6 and the cutting done from the upper right-hand edge to the lower left-hand edge. See Figure IV.

Figure V shows how the propeller is fastened to the frame of the model by means of the shaft and bearing. In the illustration a bent-nail bearing is shown lashed to the frame. The shaft is passed through the hub with its projecting end bent over and embedded to the hub. If necessary it may be reinforced by indenting the bend and lashing. Two or three washers are slipped on the shaft which is then passed through the bearing. Finally the propeller is re-secured to make sure it runs true.

If the propeller is used on a pusher model, the hook of the shaft will be on the convex side of the blade; if on a tractor, it will be on the concave side. Figure IV shows the most efficient method of placing propellers on a twin-pusher model. It is assumed that the propellers have curved entering edges and that the model is being observed from the rear. The propellers should turn upward and outward to give best results. In the case of twin propellers, both should balance in weight and have similar blade curvatures; this will insure that the models will fly straight.

Barbers Strike At Steubenville

STEUBENVILLE, O., May 2.—Steubenville today was trying to get its barbers back to work. Seventy-eight of them were called out of 35 shops yesterday when master barbers failed to agree to a new price scale that boosted the price of shaves a dime and provided earlier closing hours. The master barbers rejected the scale because it did not raise prices for haircuts.

Y. W. Athletic Club Has Dinner Meeting Wednesday Evening

Club Members Have Final Monthly Dinner Party Of Season

Twenty were present at the dinner meeting of the athletic club of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. This was the last monthly dinner of the club for the season and was in the form of a "boy and girl event." Part of the girls were dressed as men.

The dinner table was prettily decorated in tones of pink and green.

Mrs. Catherine Shost was in charge of decorating. A delicious menu was enjoyed.

After the dinner the girls went to the gymnasium, where a business meeting and social time were enjoyed. Miss Mildred Westbaker, president of the club, presided. Miss Eva Bricker was appointed treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Miss Elizabeth Seibert. A number of plans were discussed, including spending the week-end of May 18 at Camp East Brook. The club members will also spend a week at camp when the season opens. The club will have a tennis court on Florence avenue. A sum was set aside to build the court, this desires, man is a fallen pod who Miss Eva Bricker is chairman of the tennis committee.

Plans were made for a birthday party on May 23. Each member of the club will come to the party, dressed to represent the month in which they were born. Prize for the best costume.

Leibendorfer-Jones Nuptials Wednesday

Popular Young Couple Quietly Joined In The Parsonage Of
The U. P. Church
Thursday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Miss Margaret Leibendorfer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leibendorfer of Elport, became the bride of David Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Jones of this city, at a quiet ceremony Thursday afternoon at five o'clock in the parsonage of the United Presbyterian church. Rev. W. E. Minter officiated and the ring ceremony was used.

Attending the couple were Miss Ann Jones, sister of the groom, and Joseph Moorhead, an intimate friend. The bride looked lovely in a traveling ensemble of brown transparent velvet and wore a sun-tan shaded hat. Her corsage was of sweet peas and tea roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party retired to the Broadhead hotel for dinner, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on a short wedding trip through Cleveland and other points. Upon their return they will reside in Elport until such time as the groom expects to be sent to Morgantown, W. Va., to manage a stone quarry.

Mrs. Jones graduated from the local high school in 1926 and Mr. Jones in 1927. Both young people are popular and are receiving the congratulations of hosts of friends.

Shenango Meeting Is Successful

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Ellwood City was well represented at the annual meeting of the Shenango Presbytery which took place Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in the Westfield church of Mount Jackson.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. E. C. Porter of Ellwood City in company with other officials, was formally installed into office. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Paul Elliott of the Slippery Rock church sang a lovely solo. Mrs. A. M. Stevenson of this city is a past officer of the society. All the sessions were most beneficial and the entire conference was well attended.

BUILDING COMMITTEE
ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Members of the building committee of the Bell Memorial church will meet Friday evening in the church to further plans for the erection of the new church.

Doctor at 83 Found People Preferred His Prescription

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Then the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxative, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of lemon and other mild laxative herbs, with pepsin.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. If grown people want to use them no one can deny them the privilege, but they should never be given to children.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs? All drug stores have the generous bottles.

Many is the family today that makes it a rule always to have a bottle of this perfect preparation in the house. Keep it handy and observe these three simple rules of health: keep the bowels cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open.

Why not try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin today?

Repaint Traffic Signs On Streets

Brilliant Orange Is New Color
Note For Ellwood's Traffic
Prohibitions Now

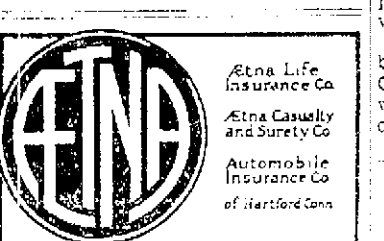

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—A brilliant orange curb which cannot fail to catch the roving eye of the most inattentive motorist, is the new color note for spring street fashions in Ellwood City. Some of the signs have already been painted, and wherever there is the orange line there will be no parking.

Even the fire plugs will be painted a brilliant orange to warn motorists from parking too near them. The first articles to receive the new coat of paint were the fire plug and "no parking" area in front of the police station to east out the color yesterday. Apparently it was sufficiently vivid, for all the streets are being painted in the restricted curb areas. Large stop signals will also be painted in the various street intersections and it is likely that angle parking stripes will be painted on Lawrence avenue between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Quota Club Will Send Delegate To Quota Conference

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Twelve members of the Ellwood City Quota Club enjoyed a dinner meeting Wednesday evening in the dining room of the Methodist church.

The principal discussion of the evening concerned the sending of a delegate to the national Quota convention which takes place the latter part of June in Worcester, Mass. No definite members, however, were selected to attend the convention, and more decisive plans will be made at the next meeting of the club. At the conclusion of routine matters the club adjourned for two weeks.

Plans All Made For Conference
Of Young People

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—All final plans are complete for the annual district conference of Young Peoples associations which takes place Thursday evening in the First Christian church.

The registration opens at 4:30. In addition to the main address by Rev. Ross M. Haverfield of the Westfield Presbyterian church, there will be an added feature of the formal installation of new officers for the coming year.

The convention this year is expected to exceed in attendance those of the preceding years, as the young peoples associations have been enlarging rapidly.

Way For Mothers Day Observance

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Various churches and organizations are making plans for the annual observance of "Mothers' Day" which occurs May 12.

The Elks Lodge, as is customary will have a public meeting with a special program to commemorate the event. All the churches will have special sermons and programs in honor of this day, which is receiving special attention throughout the country.

M. L. Club Meets At Van Gorders

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Mrs. J. A. VanGorder of Orchard avenue entertained the members of the M. L. Club Wednesday evening at her home. Three tables of bridge were in play and at the conclusion of an interesting series of games score honors went to Mrs. Elmer Douds and Mrs. Raymond Patterson.

Later dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Hugh Holiday. In two weeks Mrs. James McLaughlin of Wayne avenue will entertain.

Mrs. Chas. Stiner Entertains Club

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—Mrs. Charles Stiner of Third street entertained the members of her bridge club Wednesday evening at a 6:30 dinner party. Covers were laid for eight at small tables centered with a pretty arrangement of spring flowers, with matching tones in the novelties. Evening hours passed quickly at the bridge table, with high score going to Mrs. O. S. Wick. In two weeks Mrs. Wick will entertain the club at her home on Spring avenue.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

America In The 20th Century
The Seizure Of Vera Cruz

PRESIDENT WILSON WAS RESOLVED TO HOLD VERA CRUZ UNTIL THE HUERTA GOVERNMENT YIELDED TO HIS DEMANDS. A WEEK AFTER THE SEIZURE OF THE CITY THE MARINES WERE RELIEVED BY A FORCE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS UNDER GENERAL FREDERICK FUNSTON.

TOMORROW—WAR WITH MEXICO AVERTED.

THERE WAS SHARP FIGHTING IN THE STREETS AND MUCH SHIPING FROM THE HOUSETOPS, BUT BY THE END OF THE 22ND, THE MARINES WERE IN CONTROL OF THE CITY. EIGHT AMERICANS HAD BEEN KILLED AND TWENTY-FIVE WOUNDED, WHILE THE MEXICANS HAD SUFFERED A LOSS OF 126 KILLED AND 195 WOUNDED.

THE NEXT DAY A FORCE OF MARINES FROM THE UNITED STATES WARSHIPS LANDED AT VERA CRUZ. THEY WERE FIRED UPON BY THE MEXICANS, AND A BRICK ACTION FOLLOWED, ADVANCING UNDER A HEAVY FIRE, THE AMERICANS SEIZED THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

IN APRIL 20, 1914, AFTER THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT HAD FAILED TO DELIVER A FORMAL SALUTE TO THE STARS AND STRIPES WITHIN THE TIME LIMIT REQUIRED BY ADMIRAL MAYO'S ULTIMATUM, CONGRESS GRANTED PRESIDENT WILSON AUTHORITY TO USE THE ARMED FORCES OF THE NATION TO COMPEL THE MEXICANS TO RESPECT OUR RIGHTS AND OUR FLAG.

Holland Bread Co. Pays Fine Without Going Into Hearing

Sealer W. B. Brown Also Prefers Charge Against The A. And P. Company

Admitting that their bread was under weight, the Holland Bread company of Youngstown, through a representative appeared before Alderman Green and paid a fine of $10 and costs. Information against the Holland Bread company was made by Sealer of Weights and Measures W. A. Brown, who charged that the wrappers on the bread said that loaves weighed one and one-half pounds. Loaves which sealer Brown weighed were found to be short of the weight alleged on the wrappers. As there is no standard weight for bread in Pennsylvania, Mr. Brown brought the charge on the grounds of misrepresentation. Today was the time set for a hearing, but the bread company appeared yesterday and paid a fine. Brown says an increase in weight has been made since the charge was brought.

An information has also been made by Brown against the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, whose bread is shipped into New Castle from an out of town bakery. The weight alleged on the wrapper is one and one-half pounds on a whole wheat loaf which the firm puts out. Brown has found that the weight does not measure up to the standard alleged on the wrapper, he claims.

ROCCO LEAVES FOR CLEVELAND

Ellwood City's Man Leaves For Cleveland Where He Will Encounter Johnny Risko, Tuesday

Emmett Rocco Ellwood City's entry for the world's heavyweight title, left by train accompanied by his manager, Joe Cuno, for Cleveland, O., on Wednesday evening where he will resume and finish training for his 12-round encounter with Cleveland's heavyweight, Johnny Risko. The battle will take place in the public auditorium on Tuesday evening, May 7.
This is Rocco's first fight since his win over Frankie Wine, whom he battered all over the four squared arena several months ago. A win over Risko will increase Rocco's standing among heavyweights who are making a scramble for the title left vacant by Gene Tunney.

THERE'S no excuse whatever for running into a traffic policeman in Cambridge, Mass. The night officers are now equipped with a special safety reflector which will enable the autoist to see the officer very clearly. The reflector is worn just above the officer's belt line in front and another one is worn on his back. Chief John J. McBride has also adopted a red lens spotlight that shines down on the night officer. The reflectors are giving excellent satisfaction, according to the National Safety Council, quoting a recent report from Chief McBride.

Jealousy Caused Slaying Of Wife By Earle Peacock

Slain Woman Is Revealed As "Prom-Trotter" By Letter From Young College Boy

ENRAGED HUSBAND KILLED FOR LOVE

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 2.—Earle Peacock, the young man who lured his wife to the rooming house where he was living, and then killed her, because he was jealous of her, was revealed today by a letter from a young college boy.

As the radio repair man, an amateur scientist, faced arraignment and was formally charged with the murder of his estranged wife, authorities uncovered evidence pointing to the motive.

A romantic letter from a Baltimore college boy to Dorothy revealed the slain girl as a "prom-trotter" to fraternity houses despite her status as a married woman.

It is not wrong for me to stand off and admire you and ever love you," wrote the college youth, "Please, dear, let me know if you are coming down here."

And another significant line: "You said you were going to make the best of things between you two."

and it would be horrible if I were to cause any more friction or trouble." The amazing self control of the 21-year-old mechanic was displayed in details uncovered today concerning his actions following the crime.

Nerves Cracked
Young Peacock turned to his other love—his radio set. He kept trying stations—listening, tinkering, tinkering—with the dead body of his wife on the floor.

"He played his radio for three hours before he carried out the body," revealed Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, his neighbors.

Peacock forced the body into his automobile and drove out into the country. And under a blossoming apple tree where a boy-and-girl sweethearts they had trusted, he hid the body.

"It was raining—as if somebody were crying," recalled Peacock. A strange bit of poetic observation from such a murderer.

And for the week following the deed Peacock made gay at night—probably to forget what he had done. Peacock had pounded Dorothy to death with a pistol butt in his home in Mount Vernon on the night of their first wedding anniversary. He felt her pulse, her heart—everything was still. The body began getting cold.

Then last Friday night, five days after the murder, Peacock went straight from his dance hall enjoyment again to the apple blossom tree where he poured kerosene over his dead sweetheart and set it ablaze.

The married life of Dorothy and Earle was filled with bickerings—over money matters and mutual accusations, friends said.

"Do tell me that she and her husband were always arguing about money," said Corinne Sloan, of New Britain, Conn., "she said to me more than once, 'never marry a man, Corinne, unless he has plenty of money.'"

Lace is frequently found trimming sleeveless chiffon blouses. It is applied about the neck, trimming a jabot and banding the hipline.

Fisher Vetoes Five Measures, Two Are Signed

Among Bills Vetoes Today Is One Sponsored By Mus-manno On Taxation

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, May 2.—Veto of five measures and approval of two were announced Wednesday by Governor John S. Fisher.

The vetoes included a bill sponsored by Representative Musmanno, Allegheny, intended to amend an act of 1919 so as to exempt from local taxation the entire revenue derived from real and personal property, owned, occupied and used by any organization of war veterans.

Another bill upon which the governor frowned was that of Representative Harkins, Westmoreland, which would have compelled payment of a parent's funeral expenses out of the proceeds of life insurance left to a minor child.

"While the purpose of this bill is unobjectionable the bill was not drawn with sufficient care to justify me in approving it," the governor said in his veto message. "It would permit the orphan's court to make an order for the payment of funeral expenses even though there was a surviving parent with adequate means to pay the entire amount of the funeral expenses."

Disability To Be Added To Insurance

World War Veterans To Be Given Additional Protection
Under New Law

According to information received by Pat. J. Dempsey, executive secretary of the Red Cross, Section 311 of the World War Veterans Act has been amended under the act of May 29, 1928, providing disability insurance on policies issued by the government and now in force.

The act reads, "a new clause may be added to government insurance policies whereby an insured who is totally disabled for a period of 12 consecutive months, shall be paid disability benefits under the contract as though he were permanently and totally disabled." This is in reality a presumption of permanent total disability after it has existed for this length of time.

No regulations have yet been issued by the U. S. Veterans' Bureau on this new provision, but it is understood that one will soon be released. Meantime, veterans are receiving forms upon which they are asked if they desire to have this special clause added to their contracts. If this clause is added, it will increase the premium rate, the amount of which has not yet been determined.

EVANGELIST PATRICK AT WESLEYAN CHURCH

Evangelist Wade Patrick of Alliance O. will begin a series of evangelistic services in the Wesleyan Methodist church, Lyndal street of which Rev. W. H. Armstrong is pastor, beginning

HAPPENINGS IN WORLD OF SPORT

Herrera And Newton To Furnish Action

Herrera Has Not Met Defeat In 66 Fights; Newton Is A Puncher To Be Feared; Solomon And Carey Provide Plenty Of Class To Semi-Final; Bill Looks Like Action Plus For Monday Night.

Tony Herrera, Chicago junior lightweight who fights Ray Newton of Mansfield here Monday night is pronounced one of the best fighters in the Midwest. Many of the so who have followed the triumphs of Sammy Mandell believe that Herrera would either carry Sammy to a draw or capture the decision and when the Mexican romps with Ray Newton, blonde tiger of Mansfield Monday night at the bowl the fans will have a chance to draw their own conclusions as to the position Herrera owns in the pugilistic world.

Tony Herrera doesn't know what defeat means. In all his 66 fights he has stepped wide and fancy and is coming to fight Newton at confident of winning as a game cock does over a barnyard rooster, but will he? That is the question. Ray Newton says Tony will find him a little different than some of the westerners. In fact Newton says he will "pep" him before the last song rings.

Ray first came into the limelight when he fought Johnny O'Keefe. He came to the Pittsburgh region then dropped a piece of dynamite on the highly touted Terry Lingo and Terry has not amounted to much since that night. He followed this victory by an impressive run.

Has Good Record For instance he has stopped Tommy Lou, Jimmy Smith, Irvin Grace, Georgia Meahan and that sizzling hot Young Glazy. The latter only went five rounds with Ray. Among the boys he battered for decision were Homer Rynn, Harold Knopp, Jimmy Perry, Harry Thomas, et al.

Eddie Kik Wagner of Philadelphia, a rousing lightweight imagined he would have a picnic with Newton but he was fortunate. Phil Goldstein also met Newton and knows how it is to feel to have the Mansfield Welshman bounce a glove off his chin. The decision which went to Newton was questioned.

But the fact of the coming embroglio is this: Herrera has never been defeated. Newton is coming fast. He is anxious to make the grade and he has selected the Jolly bowl to make the attempt and any fan who steps through the bowl doors Monday night at nine o'clock fast time will see a rip, rousing set.

Some Town Star Mickie Solomon, main bout fighter in Pittsburgh, will step out against Johnny Carey of Erie. They are as pretty a pair of welterweights as could have been docketed and it is hoped sincerely that Mickie doesn't bring a hand or sustain a rushed forehead when he clashes with Buck McTiernan, Friday night.

Class personified will be seen when Leo Morzy and Mickie Dolato, flyweights romps again. They'll go six if one of them doesn't suffer a knock out. It would not be surprising were either Jackie King (Young Snik) or Robby Collura knocked loose from the floor when they punch in a four rounder.

Roy Minter may and may not fight. Recently he hit Tony Leone on the head with his right and if it isn't in condition to punch, it is too soon for him to draw the engagement. Minter is a fighter, hell to bell and he's getting better. Iovino is a southpaw who never backs up.

The bouts at Jolly bowl Monday night will be started at nine o'clock daylight savings time which was the custom last summer. Should warm weather continue the sides will be removed and the fans will be able to see the fighters and the stars. It looks like a real summer crowd which means a capacity house.

County Games To Occur On Friday Friday evening the fourth round of games in the county class B baseball league will occur and at which time four teams in both the East and West leagues will be in action.

In the West league, Bessemer is meeting Union on the Bessemer diamond, and Jackson and Shenango are clashing at Mt. Jackson. In the Eastern section of the league, Princeton will go to New Wilmington while Plainrove and Volant will meet on the latter's field. East Brook will be idle.

HILLSVILLE AND BESSEMER TO MEET Tracksters of the Bessemer school seventh and eighth grade are meeting the same grades of the Hillsville school in a track contest on May 14 at Hillsville according to the announcement which has been made.

Get Results Of Games In Early

The 1929 baseball season in New Castle is about to start. The New Castle News will publish accounts of games played in the various leagues as far as possible, providing the score sheets are turned in to The News office the same night the game is played, or at the very latest by 8 o'clock the next morning. This ruling must be lived up to. Also, The News will not, under any circumstances, this year compile a standing of any league. If the teams and leagues desire a standing result in The News, they must hand the same in at The News office. Too much time has been wasted in other years in trying to locate ball teams who fail to report games. If the baseball populace of the city and county will lend their co-operation, the results can be published. Get your scores in early, make this a slogan for the year. It's up to the team managers.

Lawrence County League To Open Season Saturday

Two Fast Games Billed; Italians To Entertain Pennsy Railroad

SLOVAK A. C. TO PLAY AT WAMPUM

The Lawrence County baseball league is ready for the "kick-off" on Saturday afternoon. Two fast games are on tap for the fans in the inauguration of the 1929 season. Four teams are primed and awaiting that old familiar cry of "Play Ball".

In the first battle on New Castle soil the Italian A. C. and Pennsylvania Railroad teams will battle it out at Centennial field. The game should be a good one. Both teams have added strength during the long layoff, and they are ready to start hammering away at the pennant.

The other county league tilt scheduled for the opening day finds the Slovak A. C. playing at Wampum. Manager Bob Robertson of the Wampum team predicts that his club will finish high this year and the boys from the southern end of the county are anxious to get away on the right foot Saturday. The Slovak team, managed by Morris Slovinsky, is just as anxious to start the season in the right fashion, and a good contest is freely predicted.

Seven Good Teams. There are three other teams in the Lawrence County league this year as follows: Bessemer, Hillsville and Rick Motors. The others will open their season next Tuesday evening.

Indications point to a very successful season in the circuit. William G. Andrews, president of the loop, is confident that the season of 1929 is going to be one of the best in the history of baseball in Lawrence county. The league affairs this year will be handled by the same three commissioners that acted last season, Judge James M. Chambers, Louis "Pik" Glitch and the writer. Eddie Conner is secretary and treasurer of the league and Alice Samuels is vice president.

Commissioner Glitch today made the following umpire selections for the opening battles: Saturday, May 4. P. R. R. at Italian A. C. McCann and Ross. Slovak A. C. at Wampum. Price and Brooks.

Tuesday, May 7. Italian A. C. at Bessemer, Nolte and Dominick. Hillsville at Rick Motors, Ross and McCann.

City-County League Adopts Schedule

Weather Permitting, Twilight League Gets Under Way Today

Every team of the City-County baseball league was represented at the final pre-season meeting of the league held last night in Danceland, with President Edward Pritchard presiding.

The most important matter of business up for consideration was the adoption of a new schedule, necessitated by the fact that there are seven teams in the league.

The schedule adopted provides for games on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. All twilight games will start at 6:30 o'clock. All contracts of players who have been signed up by the various teams and are eligible to play in the coming games of the league were turned in last night.

An exception to the rule requiring a contract was made in the case of one player, who will be permitted to play without a contract until after his graduation in June.

Several of the teams, it was announced at the meeting, will appear in new uniforms in the opening game. Weather permitting, the league will get away with three opening games this evening.

The openers scheduled for this evening at 6:30 o'clock are: Boro A. C. vs Cascade All Stars, Frank avenue grounds; Danceland vs Harlansburg at Harlansburg; Princeton vs Energy A. C. at Energy. The National Radiator Colored Stars will play their opening game later.

Horsemen Still Stick To Strike

International News Service AURORA, Ill., May 2.—The second day of Aurora's horseless and raceless horse racing season today found striking horsemen standing pat in the face of the ultimatum of General Manager Clifford Trimble of the track to "race or get out and take your horses with you."

"If the entries don't fill today all stables that have refused to enter horses will be shown the gate," declared Trimble.

ROUTIS OFFERED BOUT WITH BASS International News Service PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Bob Guinness and "Muggs" Taylor, Philadelphia boxing promoters, have offered Andre Routis $50,000 to defend his world's featherweight title against Benny Bass, of this city, at a ball park here on July 4.

Mahoning School Baseball League Gets Under Way

The Mahoningtown junior high class baseball league got under way Wednesday at the seventh ward school. The 9A-1 team was defeated by the 9A-2 team by a score of 5 to 1 in a seven-inning game.

The 9A-2 team won by pounding Harris and Russo for 11 hits in the seven frames. Harris pitched five innings and gave way to Russo who held the winners to one tally in two innings. Tommeleo, the 9A-2 hurler set the opposing team down without a hit for six and pitched a masterful game. Tommeleo fanned 14 men.

The midget league at the seventh ward school gets under way today with the 7-B team meeting the 8-B team.

Chiffon weight Scotch tweeds are now used by couturiers for big weather wear.

Last Nights Fights

Athletics Show Batting Power

Macks Will Have To Be Reckoned With This Year As Flag Contenders

BROWNS CONTINUE TO LEAD LEAGUE

BY LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 2.—The world's champion New York Yankees have no monopoly on slugging. In the American League this season, the Detroit Tigers have been hitting at a 320 clip and yesterday the Athletics won on a terrific batting spree against the Red Sox.

The Mackmen Maulers gave Ruth, Gehrig and Co. a mark to shoot at by piling on twenty-nine hits, including three home runs, and scoring twenty-four runs. A batting belt in the sixth inning netted ten runs. The Mackmen almost equalled the modern base hit record of 31, held by the Giants, and the modern run record of 27, held by Cleveland.

Jimmy Foxx and Al Simmons each contributed five hits. Foxx getting two homers and Simmons only, Manager Carrigan of the Sox called upon twenty-one players in an effort to stem the tide. The Sox scored six runs.

Browns Win Again

Meanwhile the league-leading St. Louis Browns checked up the eleventh victory of the season by defeating Cleveland, 4 to 2. General Alvin Crowder registering his fourth win of the year. It was the Browns' fourth consecutive triumph, and Cleveland's fifth straight defeat.

The first interseasonal contest of the year will be played today when the Phillies entertain the Cubs. The other East vs. West clashes being held over until tomorrow and Saturday. The Cubs and Reds battled thirteen innings to a 4 to 4 tie in Cincy yesterday after the rockville outfit had scored two runs in the ninth to tie the score. Hack Wilson hit his fourth homer and Bush and Root pitched against Luque, Ash and Rixey.

The only other game played was another thirteen-inning tie contest between the Cardinals and the Pirates. The Pirates, like the Reds tied the score in a ninth inning rally. Wee Willie Sherdel went the route for the Cards, while Bill, who started for Pittsburgh, was knocked out in the fifth inning. The score was 4 to 4.

Change o' Pace Artists

BY QUIN HALL

When the Cardinals finally pulled stakes and made their way north out of Florida, they were looking much more like a championship baseball outfit than when they first started to play exhibition games down in the grapefruit belt.

The first time we saw them in action, Billy Southworth, this year's pilot of the St. Louis club, had the team hitting on all six and, with some of the regular hired hands on with injuries, the Red Birds were floundering and didn't seem to be able to pull themselves together.

The last tilt the Yankees played in St. Pete before they got away from the Sunshine City (where they have more benches than any other city of equal size in the world) was fought with the Cards. Southworth had his full strength on the lot and the St. Louis entry in the National League gallop was twisting the world champ around their little fingers and doing things with them. The bat boy with the Cards said a mouthful when he chorled: "They're playing ball but they're doing it six months too late."

He referred, of course, to the pos showing put up by the same club in the World's Series last fall. Alexander to start that game and that old master proved that he is going to be very effective again this Summer. To finish off the afternoon "Wee Willie" Sherdel was pushed out on the firing line and he showed that he would be ready to take his regular turn. The new pilot and his regular outfit working and how they were working!

Naturally, that was an exhibition game but the improvement which the St. Louis club showed over their earlier efforts was a very good indication of what might be expected of the club during the present campaign.

Russo And Harris Win Tenpin Title

Seventh Ward Tenpin Title Match Closes With Russo And Harris As Winners

Billy Russo and Harris won the tenpin title of Lawrence County at the Solomon Recreation parlors in Mahoningtown on Wednesday night.

The Russo-Harris combine won the crown by a total of 73 pins, defeating Clark and Thompson.

The Clark and Thompson team defeated Russo and Harris on Wednesday evening by 112 pins, but the loss that the champions piled up on Tuesday evening was enough to cast them through.

The teams for Tuesday night were Russo and Harris 112, Clark and Thompson 73. Russo and Harris gave them a 73 pin lead in the final reckoning.

Clark had a total of 963 for the five-game match last night, and Thompson had 960 for the same number of games, giving them a grand total of 1,923 pins for the evening.

Russo had 961 for Tuesday evening, and Harris had 849, giving them a total of 1,810 for the evening.

Russo and Harris are willing to defend their title against any two-man tenpin team in Lawrence County, according to word today from Tommy Solomon. Both boys are very fine bowlers and throw their where the pins are.

Tonight the P. C. L. E. dunkin team of Yarmouth will play the Solomon dunkin team in a match game at the Solomon alleys.

Twenty Six Passengers
FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, May 2.—With 26 passengers aboard, the Graf Zeppelin soared aloft at 5:11 a. m. today on a flight to Vienna and back.

Dr. Schuerff, Austrian minister of traffic was among the passengers. Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the airship was at the helm when the Zeppelin left the ground.

Art Craft Heaves Javelin 182 Feet

Craft Showing Up Much Better Than Saturday; Throwing Shot Over 43 Foot Mark

OTHER MEMBERS OF SQUAD PROGRESS

Art Craft lanky New Castle high school trackster and who throws the discus, the javelin, and the shot appears to be not only getting in tip top shape for Saturday when he will be entered in Carnegie Tech's annual schoolboy meet but also improving. It was shown last night at Franklin Field when he was doing his daily chores. Craft threw the javelin a distance of 182 feet which shows that since Saturday he has improved some 19 inches and threw it five inches further than the winner's at Geneva College.

If Craft heaves the javelin at 182 Saturday he can practically go to Pittsburgh with the idea of clinching first place in this contest. He will compete against the same schoolboy who beat him last Saturday.

Throwing the javelin at such a distance is exceptionally good for a school boy. He also showed up well in the other two events—the shot put and the discus.

Craft hurled the discus over the 121 foot mark, which won at Geneva. In this event Craft was defeated by an inch or so last Saturday. Craft also did good in the shot put when he threw this at a distance of over 43 feet which was the winner at Geneva.

The remainder of the tracksters are also coming along in tip top shape for Saturday, so states one William Bill Klee who is at the head of the track meet. Sanders Campbell, Clemens and Barry are the other men who will more than likely make the trip to Pittsburgh.

Whether Wenio, pole vaulter, will make the trip is unknown. Wenio traveled a height of 10 feet 3 inches last night.

Pirates-Cards Go 13 Innings

Pirates Use Three Hurlers To Get Even Break With St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—Pirates and Cardinals played 4 to 4 in a 13-inning game yesterday. The elements had considerable to do with the game and the west wind swept many fly balls out of their natural course.

After being all but beaten, the Pirates rallied in the ninth and managed to pound to a draw verdict and the series with St. Louis ended with a victory for each team.

Ralston Hensley, Pirate catcher, was spiked in one of the plays when Fisch made a desperate effort to break up the game in the 12th.

Hill started for Pittsburgh, went 4-2-3 innings and nine hits and four runs came from his delivery. Swatonic relieved him and went 3-1-3 innings and allowed two hits. Brann finished the game. Sherdel went the route for the Cards.

Tunney Coming Home Highly Polished By European Associates

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service
NEW YORK, May 2.—Mr. J. J. Tunney, the pugilist who perceived the error of his ways before it was too late, is soon to be returned to us filled with Old World culture and a vast distaste for the reporter who doesn't know his place. This place may or may not be with the scullery help, depending on the point of view.

Anyhow, I am informed today that he intends to return to America by way of Montreal in order to circumvent the ship news men and photographers and that probably he will arrive in New York strictly incognito, if not by stealth.

Personally, I feel that Tunney is absolutely entitled to what he wants and should get it. He has asked for privacy and, during recent months, it may have been noted that he had attained privacy in a degree that might have sufficed the keeper of a high house.

True, he has had to push the face of a photographer or two down inside his lens in order to keep everything peaceful and happy. But, after all, what photographer do you know whose face mightn't be the better for the experience?

May Effect Disgrace.
Tunney probably would prefer to stay in Europe where one can push a photographer and he stays pushed. The American of the breed is a far more hardy specimen and, when the man who doesn't wish to be interviewed finally returns home, the chances are that he will find somebody waiting for him even if he goes so far as to come back on a cattle boat, disguised as a wild cat in the feed box.

By the way, did you know that Gene is a master of disguise? The last time he had need to arrive unannounced in New York, he finished right behind a pair of smoked glasses. That was the time he didn't carry a book. On this occasion, perhaps he will disguise himself as a pugilist; but he may decide, after all, that this is too obvious. Everybody knows that he is a pugilist.

There will be something very tricky about it, you may be sure. Gene has been sitting on the same at Briole discussing life and its problems with George Bernard Shaw. It is bound to lead to something. Mr. Shaw himself is an expert of no mean repute in the matter of disguise having once disguised himself as a tight expert, gained great distinction on that preparation for the Covenanters will be staged this afternoon. The team which defeated the Dukes included Capt. Schaffer, Clark, Groezinger, Robinson and I. L. Mansell. In addition to these men, Melhaffey, Findlay, Gamble and McClure of the freshman class all look good and may get into some of the matches before the season is over. Considerable black with the white necktie is sponsored in afternoon dresses.

City Semi-Final Marble Winners Are Announced

Eleven Schools Out Of 15 Entered Have Determined Their Very Best

FINAL MEET WILL OCCUR NEXT WEEK

Marble champs for 11 of the 15 New Castle schools entered in the city-wide school marble tournament were announced by the contest manager at the Benjamin Franklin Junior High School this morning.

Girl champs as well as the boys have already been determined at several schools and where this has been done the girl champ is listed, with the boy champ below. Most of the schools have completed their contests, but unforeseen difficulties have delayed competition at some schools.

The champs at the various schools where the games have been played are as follows:

George Washington Junior High—Perry Recher Jr.
Highland—James McGovern.
Arthur McGill—Earl Pratt.
Thaddeus Stevens—James Pagley.
Alken—Charles Yearagoe, Dolly Corner.

Mahoningtown—John Thomas.
Terrace Avenue—John Senehak.
Pollock—Patsy Conant, Josephine Bertolino.

Oak Street—George Ross.
Croton—Louis Angelo, Rida Murphy.

Ben Franklin Junior High—Angelo Colella, Anna Dado.

The Rose Avenue, West Side, North Street and Lincoln and Garfield schools have yet to finish their eliminations, while the foregoing and George Washington, Highland, Arthur McGill, Thaddeus Stevens, Mahoningtown, Terrace Avenue and Oak Street buildings must determine a champion to represent their girls.

Winners of each school will compete for final honors at the Ben Franklin stadium playground on the afternoon of May 11.

Special guests included Committee-men Fehs, Sprout, Burkholder, Martin, Schmidt, R. L. Wallace and Deputy commissioner McGrath.

Cramer And Gamble Overdue At Chicago

Fliers Fail To Reach Chicago On Scheduled Time; May Be Forced Down In Mid-West

(International News Service) CHICAGO, May 2.—Parker Cramer, Clarion, Pa., flyer, and W. S. Gamble, his companion on a North American Asiatic flight last week, were several hours overdue today at the municipal airport on the St. Paul-to-Chicago leg of their Rome-to-New York journey.

Little concern was felt, however, as it was thought their Cessna monoplane had descended somewhere along the route.

Cramer and Parker were due in Chicago late last night, but had not put in an appearance at seven o'clock this morning.
